Sports

By H. C. HAMILTON
 (United Press Staff Correspondent.)
 New York, Dec. 22.—Giggles that have gone from one end of the United States Pacific coast to the other were started recently when the Amateur Athletic union, meeting in New York, decided to keep women swimmers from competing with the male of the species, and as a side-issue decreed that there must be a change in the garb worn by the lady-fish.
 The A. A. U. highbrows ordained it to this effect: "All women contestants in swimming events must wear bathing suits of a black texture that covers their bodies from shoulder to toe."
 The giggle is still giggling, or it was at very recent reports. The mermaids absolutely refused to get excited over the advice and announced that henceforth, just the same as heretofore, they will follow their own inclinations and wear the popular one-piece kind of Annette Kellerman decolette suits.
 Several of these sprites declared with a grin tucked in here and there that to insist on women wearing stockings in swimming events is the funniest thing they ever heard suggested.
 "I'd like to take some of those men, hang long stockings on them and then make them swim races in rough water," one remarked.
 The women are united in declaring that the stockings quickly become water bags, retarding the swimmer and making it almost impossible to race.
 Another remarked: "No girl would be able to achieve good time in a suit such as the officials prescribe. The knee and foot must be free. Neither man nor woman in the water feels at home with any fabric clogging the feet and legs. If the costume is insisted upon, it will simply put an end to women racing. But I do not expect western officials to agree to such narrow-minded and unnecessary regulations."
 One woman, well known as a swimmer, wants to know why the A. A. U. officials didn't suggest that the women wear hats and shoes, too.
Brazil May Buy German Ships.
 Rio de Janeiro, Nov. 28.—(United Press, by Mail)—A bill proposing the purchase of the German ships interned in Brazilian harbors was presented in the lower house of congress and will come up for discussion within a few weeks.
 This bill is said to follow in general outline similar bills introduced in the legislative bodies of both Argentina and Chile with the exception of that

Song of Norway.
 Yes, we love this land that towers
 Where the ocean foams;
 Rugged, storm-swept, it embowers
 Many thousand homes.
 Love it, love it, of you thinking,
 Father, mother dear;
 And that night of saga sinking
 Dreamful to us here.
 This is the land that Harald guarded
 With his hero-throng;
 This the land that Haakon warded,
 Hailed by Eyvind's song.
 Many truly were we never,
 But we did suffice,
 When in times of testing ever
 Worthy was the prize.
 Yes, we love this land that towers
 Where the ocean foams;
 Rugged, storm-swept, it embowers
 Many thousand homes.
 As our fathers fought, acquiring
 Victory at the end,
 We shall heed the call inspiring
 And its peace defend.

Suffered Great Pain!

Letter Tells of Long Looked-for Prescription.

Dear Mr. Editor—I am making a personal appeal to your readers who are bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and rheumatism, to give up the use of harsh salts, or alcoholic kidney medicines and in their place take a short treatment of "Anuric" and be convinced of its wonderful virtues as I was. I suffered great pain, had a great deal of irritation, water became foul. I tried everything advised but with no results. I sent for a box of "Anuric Tablets" and soon discovered that they brought relief. I have used them since, and now the water is natural, my health good, and appetite splendid. Some of the doctors pronounced my trouble enlarged prostate. Now I have no more trouble and I most assuredly feel that this latest discovery of Dr. Pierce's is the best remedy for bladder and kidney troubles that I know of. If I can induce anyone to give it a trial, I feel that he will thank me for calling attention to this great boon that relieves this seemingly worst of all troubles that human flesh can fall heir to.
 (Signed) H. H. FLEISHER.

Stomach Trouble and Constipation.
 Those who are afflicted with stomach trouble and constipation should read the following: "I have never found anything so good for stomach trouble and constipation as Chamberlain's Tablets. I have used them off and on now for the past two years.

They not only regulate the action of the bowels but stimulate the liver and keep one's body in a healthy condition," writes Mrs. Benjamin Hooper, Auburn, N. Y.
