THE CITY BEAUTIFUL

QUAKERS PLAN CAMPAIGN FOR CITY CLEANUP
 Novel Schemes For Attracting and Holding Public Attention.
CIVIC WELFARE WORK IN A FRENCH TOWN.
 Regard For Interests of Industrial Workers by Authorities.

A six weeks' campaign for cleaner streets was inaugurated recently in Philadelphia at a meeting of the members of the Poor Richard club. The campaign aims to teach every citizen to cease making the streets unsightly and unhealthful.
 Irvin F. Paschall, a director of the ad. men's organization, suggested some novel schemes for attracting and holding public attention to the campaign. Declaring that such a movement should adhere to the outlines of a regular advertising campaign, he suggested that a definite organization be formed to serve as the groundwork. "Clean Up Boosters" was the name he said Chief Council had suggested for the title of the campaign organization, which title Mr. Paschall reduced to "Cubs," using the initial letter of each of the words "Clean Up Boosters." Thus members will be known as Cubs.
 There will be no dues and no meetings. The only requirement is that citizens who wish to help make Philadelphia a more tidy as well as a more healthful city shall pledge themselves to "help keep my city clean," sign a pledge card and send it to Chief Council in city hall. Mr. Paschall said that when 1,500,000 members were enrolled in Philadelphia the campaign would be a success.
 Each member will receive a badge with this wording on the front: "I Help Keep My City Clean," and on the reverse, "Be a Clean Up Booster—Can You Rubbish—Pick Up Papers." Further, Mr. Paschall announced that a city wide campaign will be started to find a better slogan than the one adopted. This contest will be open to all, an announcement that stirred the advertising men.

Part For Women Only.
 Most of the women workers in shops and offices are found in the eastern cities and in Chicago, says the Brooklyn Eagle. West of the latter city there has been a romantic tradition that men marry women instead of making them work for a living. But evidently times are changing, and it has remained for Kansas City to establish a provision for working women which one might imagine to be needed in Boston or New York, but hardly on the banks of the Missouri.
 This is nothing less than a night park for women, from which men are excluded by an unfeeling police. A cynical inquirer might wonder whether women would not be afraid to go to such a park alone, but the report is that the tennis courts and other recreations provided are in full use from 7 o'clock until 10 in the evening. The idea of the park was to afford opportunities for recreation for young women who have been sitting through their evenings in hall bedrooms in boarding houses or moving picture shows, and the promoters of the plan are elated at its acceptance. However, the park is new yet, and later reports will be awaited before the new idea is widely copied. Adamless Edens are sorry makeshifts at best, and those philanthropists who establish homes with courting parlors are working along more normal and therefore probably more successful lines.

SAUCES AND MEATS.
 Combinations Which Satisfy Some Particular Persons.
 With roast beef, tomatoes, grated horseradish, mustard, cranberry sauce, pickles.
 With roast pork, apple sauce, cranberry sauce.
 With roast veal, tomatoes, mushrooms, boiled onions.
 With roast mutton, currant jelly and caper sauce.
 With boiled mutton, boiled onions, caper sauce.
 With boiled fowls, boiled onions, lemon sauce, cranberry sauce and jellies.
 With roast lamb, mint sauce.
 With roast turkey, cranberry sauce and currant jelly.
 With boiled turkey, oyster sauce.
 With roast goose, apple sauce and grape or currant jelly.
 With boiled fresh mackerel, stewed gooseberries.
 With boiled bluefish, white cream sauce, lemon sauce.
 With boiled shad, mushroom sauce, parsley or egg sauce.
 With fresh salmon, green peas and cream sauce.
 Pickles are good with all roast meats—in fact, with all meats. Lemon juice is a grateful addition to all kinds of fish. Spinach is the proper accompaniment to veal, green peas to lamb. Potatoes are required with all kinds of meat. With fowls they are tastier mashed.

"The cook is leaving today and wants me to give her a recommendation, but I don't know what to say."
 "You might say she is a good worker."
 "A good worker! She's anything but that."
 "Oh, I don't know. She has worked over for $30 a month and her board, hasn't she?"—New York Times.

TELEPHONE GIRL IS AMERICA'S NEW HEROINE

TESSIE MCNAMARA
 Miss McNamara is America's newest heroine. She was at the telephone switchboard of the Canadian Car & Foundry Co., at Kingsland, N. J., when she noticed the small flame which later caused explosions of big stores of munitions, wrecking buildings and killing many. She stuck to the switchboard until she had routed out all 1400 employes of the plant, then fainted and was saved by Fire Chief McArthur.

"Come on Over, See My Corn Fall Off!"
 "I Put 2 Drops of 'Gets-It' on Last Night—Now Watch—"
 "See—all you have to do is to use your two fingers and lift the corn right off. That's the way 'Gets-It' always works. You just put on about 2 drops. Then the corn not only shrivels, but loosens from the toe, without affecting the surrounding flesh in the least. Why, it's almost a pleasure to have corns and see how 'Gets-It' gets them off in a hurry and without the least pain. I can wear tight shoes, dance and walk as though I never had corns."

"That Was a Quick Funeral That Corn Had With 'Gets-It'."
 "Gets-It" makes the use of too-irritating salves, bandaging, taping, plasters and other things not only foolish, but unnecessary. Use this wonderful discovery, "Gets-It," for any soft or hard corn or callus. It is the new, simple, easy, quick way, and it never fails. You'll never have to cut a corn again with knives or scissors, and run chances of blood poison. Try "Gets-It" tonight.
 "Gets-It" is sold everywhere. See a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.
