

A NUMBER 8 hat may cover a mighty intellect or it may cover a plain case of big head.

Velvet Joe

They're the same—yet different.

They're both hats-on-heads.

Don't judge by externals.

Several kinds of tobacco come in tins. VELVET tobacco is put up in tins. But that doesn't make it like other kinds.

The finest selected leaf from Kentucky's richest Burley fields is only the beginning of VELVET. Then a full two years' ageing in wooden hogsheads—a matter of large storage and investment expense. Then a careful manufacturing method employing the widest experience of life-long tobacco men.

What goes into the tin governs the pipe satisfaction that comes out of it. And we believe you will prefer VELVET to any other pipe tobacco at any price.

Reforming The Prayer Meetings.

A New York pastor has set about to bring the prayer meeting up to date. He recognizes that the old-fashioned prayer meeting has lost its power. "The trouble," he says, "is that it has 'lost touch with the intellectual element of the community.' His remedy is to change the nature of the prayer meeting so as to bring back the intellectuals.

They need the prayer meeting, he says, as much as it needs them. "Religion is a great thing for everybody. It puts 100 per cent personal efficiency into a man."

In the old prayer meeting everybody present was expected to participate, but a handful of people generally did the speaking and the praying right along. There were always many silent members, sitting rather terrified at their own inability to feel or express the emotional experiences related by the devout speakers. Silence was condemned as "unbelief and unregeneration." The meetings were swayed by the personal emotionalism of a few. There was no tolerance for discussion outside the narrow, established ruts of belief. Independent thought was frowned on.

This pastor wants to get away from this "narrow emotionalism" which he says has driven away so many intelligent and really religious men and women. He wants a prayer meeting in which everybody is free to participate, and in which all sorts and shades of discussion are welcomed. Formal prayer will have a smaller place in it. Fundamental religious beliefs will be interpreted in the light of present day life and problems, present day knowledge and ways of thinking. There will be less emotion, more fact and reason, more effort to express gospel truths in terms of social needs, more effort to turn Christianity into channels of public service.—The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

The Whipp Concert.
Hartridge Whipp, Oregon's noted baritone, accompanied by Leonora Fisher Whipp, will give a song recital at the Methodist Episcopal church on Tuesday evening January 30. Conrad Bos, the well known vocal coach and accompanist, who recently appeared in Portland as accompanist with Madame Julia Culp, the famous Dutch Lieder singer, and with whom Mr. Whipp had his lessons, said "Mr. Whipp's voice is perfectly placed and I predict for this young man a wonderful career as a concert and operatic artist."

NERVOUS WOMEN!

It's The Same Every where In Oregon.

Portland, Oregon.—"I was for six months troubled with nervousness, and the doctor said I had consumption. Through the advice of a friend I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and was completely cured. I am now in middle life and am in good health."—Mrs. G. W. MATHIS, 1476 E. 8th St., N. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is and has been for nearly 50 years just the medicine that every woman needs when passing through the changing days. It is not a secret prescription, for its ingredients are printed on the wrapper: it's a temperance medicine. Not only does it build up the entire system and make it strong and vigorous enough to withstand the organic disturbances, but it has a quieting effect upon the feminine organism that reduces the distress to a minimum. For any womanly ailment, disease or complaint, no matter of how long standing, we advise anxious women to get Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, in either liquid or tablet form.

THIS BOOK EXPLAINS.

If you will send three dimes or stamps to pay for wrapping and mailing and enclose this notice, Doctor Pierce of the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo N. Y., will send you a revised copy of his Common Sense Medical Adviser, in cloth binding, 1008 pages, with color plates. Just what you need in case of sickness or accident.
