ARCADE

BESSIE BARRISCALE AND CHAS. RAY IN LIGHTER VEIN

Triangle Presents Them as Co-Stars in a Play Calculated to Warm the Cockles of the Heart.

Marking their first appearance together, Bessie Barriscale and Charles Ray will be seen as co-stars at the Arcade theater, Wednesday and Thursday, when they are presented in a serio-comic Triangle-Ince play by C. Gardner Sullivan, entitled "Home." Since the inception of the Triangle program these two popular players have been seen in nothing but strongly dramatic offerings; hence unusual interest attached to their work in this production, which is of a lighter vein.

"Home" is the story of a girl who devotes her efforts to saving her family from the evils of a too-suddenly-acquired wealth and who nearly sacrifices her own life's happiness in succeeding. It is replete with comedy situations, although its fundamental theme is based on a big, serious idea.

It narrates the experiences of a sensible girl upon her return from a European finishing school and shows how she cleverly awakens her kin to real-

AT THE ARCADE THEATER WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY

ELABORATE MUSICAL ACT COMING TO ARCADE

An elaborate musical act will be offered to the people of La Grande, Wednesday and Thursday, when the Five Musical Hewitts appear at the Arcade theater. The Hewitts are remarkably versatile instrumentalists who perform with equal skill on many different kinds of instruments, including both the brass and stringed varieties, as well as chimes and the beautifully toned mirimbaphone. Did you ever hear of playing a xylophone with a violin bow? Well they do it. And they also play a lot of fresh instruments in a lot of fresh ways, besides turning out some fine selections from the old line instruments, such as the cornet and French horn.

Hospital Notes

Charlie Murchison is very much improved.
Mrs. Charles Taal, operated upon last week for appendicitis, is rapidly gaining strength.
Miss Frieda Graham of Elgin was returned to her home Sunday morning.
Miss Viola Denham was taken to her home Sunday morning.

SHERRY'S

Coming to the Sherry theater today and tomorrow in the Bluebird feature, "The Price of Silence," is Dorothy Phillips, one of the most beautiful and talented of screen stars. Miss Phillips is a Baltimore girl and it was in Baltimore that she made her first stage appearance in George Fawcett's stock company. Three years in the Savage productions, "Mary Jane's Pa" and "Everywoman" followed, and she created the title role in the New York production of "Pilate's Daughter." For one season she played opposite Francis X. Bushman at the Casanova company, and two years ago became a member of the Universal company.

Joseph De Grasse, who has taken Miss Phillips' screen direction as a star in Bluebirds, introduced Louise Lovely to the series when the Australian beauty first appeared in American pictures. It was De Grasse who directed Miss Phillips in several of her recent Universal features, including "If My Country Should Call," a recent release.

In "The Price of Silence" this talented actress has the best role she ever played—a part most exacting in high emotional work, while calling, as well, for adaptability in comedy and lighter shading of screen artistry. The production was made from W. Carey Wonderly's magazine story, of the same title, by Ida May Park. Frank Witson, Lon Chaney, Jack Mullah, Jay Belasco, Vola Smith and Evelyn Selbie will be principals in the supporting organization.

H. D. Clark and wife of Minneapolis are visiting at the W. T. Potts home. Mrs. Potts is a sister of Mr. Clark. Mr. Clark is an old enginee on the Soo line.

ization of their mistake.

Miss Barriscale is seen as Bessie Wheaton, the girl who is confronted with the difficult task, and her performance is said to mark another step in her remarkable advancement toward versatility as a screen star.

In the part of Bob Wheaton, whom the unhappy girl finds to be a fool, Ray is declared to prove that he is as happily cast in light comedy as he is in heavy drama. His ready appreciation of every opportunity is manifest, it is said, in each scene.

Supporting the two stars are six of the most accomplished players of the Triangle-Ince forces. They are Clara Williams, George Fisher, Agnes Herring, Thomas S. Guise, Louise Glaum and J. J. Dowling.

HARTRIDGE WHIPP BARITONE

The concert to be given by Hartridge Whipp, Baritone, January 30th at the Methodist Episcopal church, has already aroused much interest. The singer comes well recommended by the various press reports of his concerts in other Oregon cities.

He possesses a magnificent voice of great range, power and quality combined with keen dramatic instinct and in every case, wins his audience from the start.

Cincinnati Tribune.

The people of Mexico are engaged in the task of preparing to adopt a new constitution. The convention was addressed recently by Carranza, the provisional president. In the course of his speech Carranza outlined a number of reforms which he recommended as worthy of adoption. But the most notable, not only from the Mexican, but from any other nation's point of view, is found in the following: "You must consider whether the vote should be given to all or limited by educational or property qualifications. I think the vote should go to all but that it should be taken from those who make wrong use of it or those who look with indifference on the affairs of the public." If the latter proposition were a part of the American Constitution a large army of voters would have been disqualified in the state of Ohio at the recent election, for a tabulation of the votes cast shows that more than 20,000 voters failed to vote for the presidential candidate and as many as 30,000 manifested the same feeling of indifference toward the candidates for the governorship.

SOLID COMFORT

Standing, Sitting or Lying Down

When you stop to think that you spend between five and six thousand hours every year in your corset, you must realize how important it is that you have a perfectly comfortable corset. A poorly fitting corset frequently leads to severe nervous and organic troubles which cause years of suffering. In the MODART Corset we have a garment that always gives genuine comfort, sitting, standing or lying down.
