LET'S GAME DECIDE IT

Club Alley's Team Beats Roesch Team

James Taylor Hartman Passes Examination; Then Plays "Fifteen" Ball for Decision.

Superior, Wis., Feb. 1.—Letting the elusive ivories in a fifteen ball pool game decide his inclination to follow a military career, James Taylor Hartman lost the game and immediately enlisted in the United States marine corps, emulating the hero of "Under Two Flags," who was willing to let the toss of a coin determine his allegiance to either the French or their enemy.

The young man passed an excellent examination at the local recruiting station, but could not make up his mind to enlist before trying this original way of deciding once for all to follow the fortunes of the "soldiers of the sea."

Hartman, who takes an optimistic view of life, despite his fatalistic beliefs, left today for the marines training station at Mare Island, Cal., fully convinced that the gods of chance are the wisest counsels.

Turning the knob even a trifle rings a bell in a new lock for home doors.

The Club Alley bowling team defeated the Roesch Alley team Tuesday night two out of three games. In the last game the Club Alley team rolled 995 pins, which is close to the record. The individual high average was made by D. Scott with 214 pins. The score was:

Prepare. Let us make ready. Let us train all our sons. We shall not simply be preparing for war. We shall be making ready for a deeper and fuller and securer national life. We shall be weeding out of our hearts and lives the cowardice and slothfulness which have marred our relation to our country and giving our better selves a chance. We shall be doing away with artificial distinctions and class differences and invoking the only principle on which a nation may safely rest—that of a democracy based on common devotion to the common good and common service to the commonwealth.—St. Louis Republic.

Watts Watt Talks No. 1

Our experience leads us to believe that a large number of our customers do not know just what they are paying for when they pay their monthly electric bills, outside of the fact that they switched on the light, heat or power during the month as they needed it. Now there is no secret about it and you should know what you are getting for your money, just as you know what you got when you paid your grocery or meat bill, so in these advertisements we are going to explain some of the "mysteries." In the meantime call at our office and get a free copy of a book published by the University of Oregon called "Elementary Primer of Electricity for Light and Power Customers." You will be surprised and interested in the information it gives in terms easily understood by everyone.

WATCH FOR THE NEXT WATTS WATT TALK

P. S.—By the way, have you seen the very latest thing in the electric line. It is a full size electrically driven sewing machine that can be carried from room to room with ease. Price $37.00. Don't sound possible does it? But it's true. Come in and see it.
