Charlie Chaplin in "The Rink."

Valeska Suratt, who is starred in William Fox's new photoplay "Jealousy," at Sherry's tonight, ably illustrates the old saying that "Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned," and carries the difficult role convincingly. She is ably supported by a cast that is typical of all Fox productions, each one picked for their peculiar fitness for the part. It is handsomely staged and Miss Suratt, conceded to be one of the best-gowned women in film-dom, wears a number of elaborate costumes. It is a high-grade entertainment for lovers of the silent drama.

ARCADE

MARGUERITE CLARK AT ARCADE THEATER

When caught by your parents in a compromising situation with your school chum and a strange young man, introduce the chum and the youth as husband and wife and the difficulty vanishes into nothingness! Then, adroitly escaping with your father and mother, leave the other two to recover from their embarrassment as best they may. But before doing so, it would be just as well to make sure that the school chum and the strange young man are not going to arrive at your own home later as guests, for that is apt to start some very serious complications. That is the unfortunate predicament in which Alice Altwood found

The name of "Miss George Washington" is bestowed upon Berenice by the friends who know her best and realize that she can outstrip her friend Alice in the matter of concocting falsehoods. Her poor, deluded school-teacher sincerely believes that Berenice has never told a lie in her life and rejoices when she is presented with a truth medal by the George Washington Truth society. Her friends who know her real disposition, can scarcely contain their mirth at the presentation of this medal.

When Berenice and Mr. Trafton, who have been introduced to Alice's mother as "Mr. and Mrs. Gardner," do meet at the Altwood home, there is consternation on the part of the three deceivers until Berenice conceives the idea of staging a quarrel before the rest of the family in order to avoid the difficulties presented by a single guest room. Trafton has already been caught trying to retire for the night herself after she had introduced Berenice Somers and Cleverly Trafton to her father and mother as "Mr. and Mrs. Gardner" in order to avoid explaining their presence in a room at the Marlend hotel. Of course their being there was all very innocent and quiet accidental, but in a moment of panic Alice decided to lie her way out of the trouble rather than to explain the facts in the case.

That was her first mistake—others confronted her with startling rapidity from that moment on as she tried to cover up the first lie with others. It all happens in "Miss George Washington," in which Marguerite Clark stars at the Arcade today. It is her first appearance on the Paramount program since the signing of her new contract with the Famous Players Film company and was directed by J. Searle Dawley, who has presided over all her more recent screen appearances.

on a balcony leading off the guest room and when his supposed wife is discovered hiding in Alice's room matters reach a climax.

This is nothing, however, compared to the furor which is aroused by the arrival of Paul Carroll, Berenice's fiance, who comes just in time to find her in the embrace of Trafton because she has decided to enact a mock reconciliation with her "husband." These are a few of the complications which follow this one lie, but they do not in any way outline the full humor of the story.

In support of Miss Clark, Director J. Searle Dawley has assembled an excellent cast include Maud Turner Gordon, Florence Marten, "Billy" Wilson, Frank Losee, Niles Welch, and Herbert Prior.

This rollicking farce will be shown at the Arcade theater today and tomorrow.

THE WHAT-YOU-MAY COLUMN

Tables.

The tables proper is a piece of dining room furniture supported by hand carved legs and father's pocketbook. It is the family table, or table that the family sit at.

The cafe table is contra-distinguished from the family table by its diversity of uses. The cafe table is sometimes sat at, often sat on and not infrequently sat under, depending upon the ebriate condition of the settees.

Then we have the round-table. The round-table is what government officials sit at when they don't want to be on the square. The only other species of round table is the one of which you get a square meal for fifteen cents.

Tables also are what we turn on folks to show them they're not so smart as they think they are.

That leaves the time table. The time table is an instrument of torture designed to keep you from finding out when your train goes.

Religion, Withstanding Cynicism, Has Survived Through the Ages. Go to Church.

A GREAT number of the people who GO TO CHURCH are men and women with the WISDOM OF YEARS AND EXPERIENCE. Many young people who seem to REJOICE WHEN THEY ARE CALLED CYNICS not only fail to GO TO CHURCH, but flippantly refer to the movement.

One great writer said, "WHO ARE A LITTLE WISE THE BEST FOOLS BE." Another said, "A LITTLE LEARNING IS A DANGEROUS THING." Churches have survived through the ages. One hates to think what would become of this world without churches and religion. The churches TEACH RIGHT-EOUSNESS. And yet there are some young people who are disposed to take lightly this splendid GO TO CHURCH movement.

Happily they are in the great minority, and it is certain that they will soon be moved by the AWAKENING OF RELIGION over the land. In many churches in the west preachers report a SPLENDID ATTENDANCE OF YOUNG PEOPLE.

THE DAY IS GONE WHEN IT CAN BE SAID THAT THE CHURCH IS ALL RIGHT FOR OLD WOMEN AND CHILDREN. GO TO ANY OF THE GREAT CITIES IN THE COUNTRY AND NOTE THE REAL BIG MEN, THE MEN YOU'D LIKE TO KNOW, AT DIVINE SERVICE. THEY ARE PROUD TO BE SEEN IN CHURCH. NO, INDEED, THE CHURCH IS NOT FOR THE OLD AND THE WEAK. IT IS FOR THE YOUNG AND STRONG. IT IS FOR EVERYBODY, FROM THE HIGHEST TO THE LOWEST. PRESIDENT WILSON HAS EMPHATICALLY GIVEN HIS APPROVAL TO THE GO TO CHURCH MOVEMENT.

If you are one of the young men who has been reached by the GO TO CHURCH appeal and now regularly attend church, you are to be commended. But you can do more. You can induce that friend of yours who is inclined to cynicism to join the GO TO CHURCH throng. Argue with him. Plead with him. Show him the right way. If you do this, you'll be doubly rewarded.

Get him to GO TO CHURCH next Sunday.

Get him to GO EVERY SUNDAY.

"ZIP"

A Chemical Chimney Sweep—Something New

Do you know that the soot on the inside of a furnace or stove and chimney increases daily until it forms a crust which is almost heat and fire proof and that eventually almost half of the heat value of the fuel is wasted and lost in getting through this crust. The draught is poor and it is impossible to get results.

A chimney sweep will clean out this sooty crust for two or three dollars and make a lot of work, dirt and muss, and yet it is worth it if you can't get it done any other way.

However, one package of "Zip," a chemical compound, will accomplish the same result in five minutes without work or dirt.
