AEROPLANE MAIL SERVICE BETWEEN WINDY AND TWIN CITIES TO BE INAUGURATED

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 16.—(United Press)—Aeroplanes will soon be carrying mail from Minneapolis and St. Paul to Chicago, making one round trip flight each day, and delivering in the Twin Cities each day mail written in Chicago the same day. The time now consumed by rail is 12 hours for the 450 miles. Postmaster A. E. Purdy of Minneapolis and Postmaster Otto N. Rath of St. Paul are working together on the plan.

A recently patented sling for carrying bowling balls consists of but three straps, yet holds balls securely.

BUYS QUARTER SECTION AND PAYS FOR IT WITH ONE CROP FIRST SEASON

Amidon, N. D., Feb. 16.—(United Press)—James E. Holzemer today told of having bought 160 acres of land in the spring, clearing part of it and raising enough off the part to pay for the whole quarter section. He bought the land last spring for $4000 and today holds it at $10,000. But then he may be an exceptionally able farmer.

ARCADE

LENORE ULRICH AT ARCADE

Many types and kinds of Oriental dancing are performed by the native dancing women in Lenore Ulrich's new Morosco-Paramount photoplay "The Road to Love."

The scenes of the Fantasia, which play so important and critical a part of this love story, are truly Oriental. But more beautiful than any of the native beauties, Lenore Ulrich in the gauze and spangles of the celebrated and much sought Hafsa, stages the premiere dance of the evening, a performance that has a very potent influence on Hafsa's adventurous career. It is a career, by the way, that

SHERRY'S

Theda Bara makes her reappearance in vampire roles in the new William Fox picture, "The Vixen," at the Sherry theater last time tonight. Miss Bara plays the part of Elsie Drummond, a young society girl who wrecks the life of her sister, Helen, by ingenious plots and false statements.

She brings unhappiness to one man, and is only saved from bringing ruin on her home by the forbearance of the sister she has wronged.

The denouement comes some years later, when the deceit which Elsie had practised toward her sister is proven. It is then that Helen's forbearance saves her from the unhappy home life.

is taken from life and makes a fascinating and highly romantic photoplay that is the attraction at the Arcade theater today and tomorrow.

The reality of Morosco-Paramount photoplays never has been more successfully maintained than in the story of the Algerian desert, "The Road to Love," with Lenore Ulrich as the star.

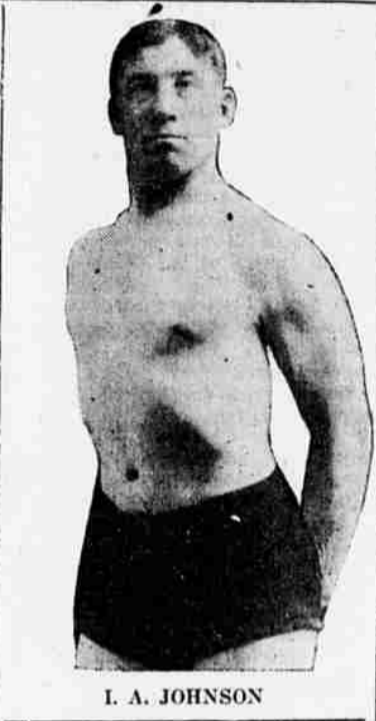

Gowns, arms, rugs, costumes and all the paraphernalia of Algerian life were secured from a wealthy Algerian who takes part in this picture play.

This native supplied the Algerian dancers, musicians, camel drivers and all the strange equipment of these people. The sight of these desert dwellers at their accustomed tasks creates an air of genuineness that adds an Oriental flavor to this strongly attractive love story of the near east.

I. A. JOHNSON

TERRIBLE SWEDE MAKES HIT

I. A. Johnson, who staged an exhibition of strength at the Arcade theater last evening certainly made good in every sense of the word. Steel horse shoes, steel bars, two and a half decks of playing cards, and steel chains were mere playthings in his hands. He also claimed to be able to break a three-fourths inch Manila rope by a straight pull but evidently this statement was doubted as a seven-eighths inch oiled rope was produced from the audience. This did not bother "The Terrible Swede" as he proceeded to break that rope much to the gratification of the audience. To top the climax, at the invitation of Mr. Johnson 18 of the huskiest men of La Grande went up on the stage and were lifted off the floor. Following are the names and weights of most of the men who were lifted: Harry Swart 260 pounds; Dick Melville, 195; Pat Foley, 224; Bill Stoops, 255; Dick Kelly, 285; Chris Miller, 200; John Rogers, 235; Cass Humphrey, 260; Vic Melville, 190; Bill Grandy, 240; Mr. Roberts, 200; Mr. Eckland, 160. These weights come to 2694 pounds.

There were six other men whose names or weight could not be learned but they were all large men and it is a certainty that Johnson was lifting "some" weight. Much merriment was caused when these gentlemen marched down the aisle to take their place on the stage as it seemed that the town had been combed for heavyweights.

Mr. Johnson will give an exhibition of wrestling with an unknown man picked by C. D. Emahiser. There is a good deal of curiosity as to the identity of the "Unknown" but the management of the Arcade has not been enlightened on this subject and the name has been kept a secret. There will be only one exhibition and that will be at 8:30 tonight, at the end of the first show.

Pay Up Week Idea is Great.

Pay and prosper.

The traveling dollar is the dollar that is doing its duty. Let's keep the dollar traveling during National Pay Up Week.

Then the rich, the poor, and the needy will cash in.

Everybody will be benefited and National Pay Up Week will be the best idea that has come to our city for many a day.

Storks.

Storks have one advantage. They are born with bamboo legs, ready to go fishing.

All a stork has to do to go fishing is to stick his leg cut over a lake and sit there. Of course, he can't shove it in the mud and go off and leave it. Still, no man who has ever herded a flock of wild poles in a three quard buggy over a bumpy road will deny that it is an advantage to go through life with poles attached. Especially coming home. A sincere fisherman has trouble enough herding himself, coming home.

But here's another thing. Suppose you got a whale on the line. We can't all be Jonahs, you know.

We guess we'll be satisfied with our legs as they are.

Dry Clothes, Warm Feet and—

Hot Lemonade

SIMPLE precautions, but wonderfully helpful in avoiding grippe and colds from exposure. When you get home, put on dry clothing, get thoroughly warm, and drink hot lemonade,—plenty of it and piping hot. Use hot water and "Sunkist" lemons,—one to each glass.

California's Sunkist Uniformly Good Lemons

When you order lemons, ask for Sunkist, the uniformly good California lemons. Sunkist are waxy, tart and juicy. See that they reach you in the clean, crisp tissue wrappers stamped "Sunkist." They will stay fresh much longer if you leave them in these wrappers until you use them. Always have at least a half dozen in the house.
