North Powder News

Horse Buyers Thick and Are Offering Good Prices—Creamery and Hardware Store Promised Town.

North Powder, Ore., Feb. 17.—(Special)—Ed Leadbetter has disposed of his pool fixtures and business to R. E. Haines and Thomas Burns. They are planning to move the stock into the Haines building, recently occupied by Forsstrom-Pilcher company. Mr. Leadbetter is planning to put in a stock of hardware into his building which has been occupied by a pool hall. North Powder needs a good hardware store very much and Mr. Leadbetter will fill a long felt want if he can put in a good stock of hardware.

Mrs. Minnie Baird has been visiting her brother, Lon Dotson, for a few days and helping to care for her little nephew who has been very sick with pneumonia. The little fellow is much better now.

It is reported that Earnest Forsstrom has gone to Alaska to look for a business location.

Horse buyers are as thick as June bugs in the month of June. They are coming from all over and everywhere. The ranchers will have to be on the lookout or they will not have enough horses left to put in their crops. Flattering prices are being offered to farmers for fancy stuff but they are keeping plenty for their own use. North Powder is noted for her fine horses all over the country.

Chris Peterson is in the Baker hospital for an operation and is reported getting along as nicely as could be expected.

Mrs. John McPhee is reported as improving after a long sick spell resulting from blood poisoning.

The Forsstrom-Pilcher company affairs will now be settled in the federal bankruptcy court in Portland.

We are informed that we will have a creamery in North Powder early this spring. This is good news to the owners of cows. We need a good creamery as there is no use in shipping it to other points to be made into butter when it can be made cheaper at home.

Wiley Dalton, John Wilson and L. A. Martin were initiated into the mysteries of the Baker lodge No. 338, B. P. O. E., a few evenings ago at the lodge hall. They are now full fledged Elks.

The past few days has been quite warm and the snow has begun to melt rapidly. However, we have enough on the ground yet to last us some day even with the weather as warm as it is. Spring will surely be welcome when it comes after the long cold winter we have had.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dave South of Union, Oregon, on February 8.

Spring must be very near from the swarm of spring salesmen that have appeared in North Powder lately. Fourteen different men were counted on the streets one day this week. Business must be brisk to get so many of them at one time.

Dave Lee of Baker was transacting business in our city on Thursday.

Mr. Sims, cashier in the local bank, spent several days at Hot Lake trying to get rid of a prolonged attack of the grip. John Gilkinson's smiling countenance was seen behind the cashier's desk during Mr. Sims' absence.

Mr. Sachs, the hide buyer from Baker, did a thriving business in the city a few days recently. He gives a fair price for hides and gets most of them from this section. Dr. Law made a professional trip to Union Tuesday.

Report says that Floyd Walk will open the Forsstrom-Pilcher garage March 1.

W. N. Gardener and son, George, were in town Thursday after a large air compressor which they loaded on a bob-sled and took out to the Laclede mine, eight miles west of town. A few days before Mr. Gardener hauled out a large gas engine to the same mine. A force of men has been at work on this property all winter and from the new equipment which is arriving and being installed it looks as if the company intends to continue development work. In the early days this was a valuable piece of property in the producing class and if it is brought up to be a paying mine again it will mean much to North Powder.

It is reported that Mr. and Mrs. Mills have secured a release of their ranch from Mr. Mercer, who leased it from them a year ago and will soon move out on their place once more. This place is known as the Kooster ranch and is one of the finest stock ranches in this part of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman White and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Pilcher were visitors to the Masonic "blowout" in Union on February 14. They report a fine time but a small attendance on account of a measles epidemic in Union.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gardener and Mrs. W. N. Gardener were Thursday visitors in Baker. "Uncle" Bill Hutchinson came up on the noon train Thursday to visit one of his ranches.
