Fans Watch Giants As Training Date Approaches

By H. C. Hamilton (United Press Staff Correspondence)

New York, Feb. 20—What is generally called the greatest baseball team ever seen in the National league not excepting even the famous old-time Cubs, will leave New York Friday for Marlin, Tex., where it will go into spring training. A second squad of Giants will follow on March 2.

John J. McGraw, successful leader of the New York team, will have the greatest foundation for a pennant winner he ever led out of Marlin, providing players new on the club's roster all report. Lack of condition, wholesale injuries or an attack of smallpox, is admitted by every critic in baseball, are virtually the only things that will keep the Giants from another pennant.

Compared with the Giants' inner and outer defense, and its catching staff, other clubs pale away to a mere shadow.

Beginning almost where they left off last fall after having established a record of twenty-seven consecutive victories, the Giants will have a big job on their hands in running true to form, but the punch is there, and if things happen without kicking a hole in the dope the world's series will be staged with one-half of the receipts counted at the Polo Grounds.

At first base McGraw will have

Walter Holke, the brilliant recruit from the International league, who topped National league batters last season during the brief period he was with the New Yorkers. He is being called the most promising prospect who has won the spangle of a major leaguer in years.

Charley Herzog, years ago a star performer at third base and recently a shining light at shortstop, has converted into a second baseman and is doing better there than at any of his former jobs.

At third base the former Club, Heinie Zimmerman, will be planted. His hitting, in addition to a great fielding ability, has caused him to be styled the best third baseman in the league.

Arthur Fletcher, another brilliant performer, will be at shortstop.

Every one of these cogs in the inner machine, with the exception of Holke, is a veteran performer. There isn't a chance that a youngster will take the place of any of them, and for that reason there will be few recruits on hand. This defense undoubtedly will stand through the season.

The outfield is just as strongly organized, and will have this year an additional bulwark in the person of Red Murray, provided McGraw decides to retain the sorrel-topped gardener.

Benny Kauff will have the center field position again, and McGraw in addition to all his supporters, expects
