Cove News Notes

Cove Will Probably Soon Have a Newspaper—Boy Scouts Organize Troupe—Ladies Aid Celebrates Anniversary.

Cove, Ore., March 1.—(Special)—Cove's newspaper is almost an assured fact. The business men of the town are giving their support in a substantial manner. Advertisements and subscriptions are coming in unsolicited. The slogan "Three hundred paid in advance subscriptions," seems well chosen and is nearly secured.

The mass meeting held in the Macabee hall Tuesday night was not as well attended as its object deserved. However those present were very optimistic, the minimum number of subscribers and amount of advertising being in sight. It only remains for the stay-at-homes from the mass meeting to do their part as well as the citizens who attended to make what is now a probability an assured fact.

Charles Williams is able to be out again after several weeks' confinement caused by pneumonia.

Monday evening about 36 boys and young men between the ages of 12 and 21, met at the Methodist church and organized a Cove branch of the Boy Scouts of America, with an enrollment of 32 members. The following officers were elected: Dr. C. C. Pratt, scout master; Morris W. Knight, assistant scout master; Dr. A. C. McCowan, Frank Roberts and Prof. Royal Allen, councilmen.

The next meeting will be held Monday evening at 7:30 in the Methodist church. All boys in Cove and vicinity are invited to be present. All arrangements for the completion of this movement will be made as rapidly as possible.

John Haefler Jr., is working on the reserve getting out logs with which to build a bungalow home for his parents on the site of their hillside home two miles east of Cove. The main building will be approximately 20 by 30 feet.

Mrs. A. A. Antles left Tuesday for North Yakima. She was called there by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Clifton Kail. Mrs. Kail was taken to St. Elizabeth's hospital in North Yakima a week ago last Thursday for an operation.

Mrs. Barnes, who is very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Silks, is improving very slowly.

Ben Duffy is out again after a week's illness with the grip and bronchitis.

George Baker has been on the sick list for the last few days.

At the Sunday morning services in the Methodist church the discussion on the "Failure of the Church" will be continued. The subject for next Sunday morning will be "Belief in God a Necessary Implication of the Reason," Dr. C. C. Pratt is pastor.

Mt. Fannie grange will meet at Shanghai school house for an all day session Saturday, March 3.

Mrs. Huntley and daughter, Eloise, spent the week end at the home of T. W. Conklin.

Mrs. Laton Conklin and daughter, Berl, who have been visiting in Spokane at the home of Mrs. Conklin's mother, are expected home in about a week.

Thursday afternoon of last week the Royal Ann Needle club with their baskets well filled with "goodies," wended their way in a body to the home of Mrs. J. W. Ingram for a genuine, old fashioned surprise party. The surprise was complete.

Mrs. Charles Johnson of La Grande is visiting at the home of Lester Johnson in Lower Cove. Mrs. Johnson will remain here about a month.

Tilden Booth of La Grande visited in the Chamber's home over Sunday.

Mrs. Whiting, who has been stopping with Mrs. Organ, is visiting friends in Medical Springs for a few days.

Messrs. and Mesdames Albert and Harry Becker of Lower Cove entertained at cards Saturday evening, February 24. There were 20 guests present. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Busy Bees Sewing club met at the home of Mrs. Nathan Daron on Thursday of last week for a social afternoon.

The 19th anniversary of the Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church was celebrated in the spacious home of Mrs. Wesley Smith, Wednesday, February 21. Notwithstanding the inclement weather 35 members and friends availed themselves of Mrs. Smith's hospitable invitation to become her guests for the day, and through her efforts were entertained by a song, "America," by all present and a piano solo by Mrs. Wesley Smith. A letter was read by the president, Mrs. A. A. Antles, written to the society by Mrs. T. W. Conklin and Mrs. Hutley, stating that they had placed in the Cove bank as a bequest from their deceased mother the sum of $25, the interest from which to be used for the benefit of the Ladies Aid society each year.

A vocal duet by Mrs. Wesley Smith and Mrs. E. W. Pease; an instrumental duet by Mrs. Leonard Towle and Miss Dena Lund; instrumental solo by Miss Pomona Stackland; instrumental duet by Misses Fay and Irene Pratt; a pen-picture poem read by Mrs. E. W. Pease and written by her mother in her 81st year—the theme of the poem was the Ladies' Aid society—a characteristic description of each member's work or worth, together with her name—concluded the program.

As an expression of their appreciation of Mrs. Kern's poem, a motion prevailed authorizing the publication of a souvenir edition of the same with a short biography and likeness of the authoress.

The remainder of the afternoon was pleasantly occupied in partaking of the delicious viands, prepared by the hostess, which were made the more appetizing by musical selections.

Telocaset Personals

Telocaset, Feb. 28.—(Special)—A big dance was given in Hess Hall Friday night by Mr. Robinson. A splendid crowd attended from neighboring towns. A two-piece orchestra furnished music and supper was served at the Hyatt restaurant at midnight.

Engineer Pearl Brooks, of the O.W., expects his wife and son, Charles, home this week from Rochester, Minn., where Mrs. Brooks has been under the care of the famous Mayo brothers for the past month. Reports state she is improving rapidly.

Misses Ruby and Winnifred Hilyard attended the "Hasenfeffer" at Kamela Saturday night, going on to Meacham Sunday to visit friends and relatives.

Fred Eames, a Telocaset rancher, made a business trip to La Grande Tuesday.

Fred Hooper, third trick operator for the O.W., is relieving Mr. McDonald, deputy agent at North Powder. Mr. Strong, from Alaska, is taking Mr. Hooper's place here.

Walter Mink, signal maintainer at Telocaset, made a trip to La Grande Saturday.

Albert Anderson will give a dance in the Hess Hall Friday night. The hall is being repaired this week and will be made much larger.

Spinach has been termed the "broom of the stomach" by a French physician because it thoroughly cleanses that organ.
