Sell It By The Want Ad Route

The Observer's little want ads do the work. It is surprising how many people turn to them every day and how quickly they meet the eye and bring buyer and seller together.

Look over your premises and see what you have to sell. A want ad describing it will hit the mark and turn something you do not need into cash.

Sporting News

REDS PIN FAITH ON VETERANS Cincinnati, O., March 2.—(United Press)—Baseball bugs hereabouts believe the destiny of the Reds, as far as 1917 is concerned, is in the keeping of Christy Mathewson and Hal Chase. Matty has a bunch of youthful pitchers to work with this season. If he can develop a star or two from among Lefty Gerner, Jim Ring, Mike Regan, Roy Sanders and Hod Eller, all snared from the bushes last fall, Red prospects of a first division berth won't be so bad, as Fred Toney, Pete Schneider and Clarence Mitchell who appear due for big years, are counted on to carry most of the burden.

The old master of the pitching hill will devote most of his time at the training camp to teaching his pitchers the secrets that made him the most famous of big league pitchers. Matty worked on Pete Schneider last fall and made a big improvement in his work. Elmer Knetzer, who still is with the team, likewise showed improvement. Chase will have charge of the batting end of the camp. Hal only led the league last year, so he is pretty well qualified to give instructions on how to hit the elusive pill. Chase likewise will drill the vets and rookies on base running and perhaps show them a few things about fielding.

A great fielding and throwing outfield is sure to wear the Red uniform this year, Eddy Rousch, Tom Griffith and Neale can go and get 'em as far as any three in the majors.

None set the world afire at best last year, so Chase will take them in tow, while Manuel Susto, a Cuban slugger, lifted from the Virginia league, will try to beat one of them out of his job.

The team is certain to be strong at two infield positions, first and third or first and second, it being uncertain right now whether Heinie Groh will play third or second. Bill McKechnie, Dave Shean, Billy Louden, Larry Kopf, Tommy Romanach are candidates for the other two jobs and all Redville bugs can hope is that they will fill the bill.

The catching staff does not look extra promising so far. Ivy Wingo and Tom Clarke both had poor seasons last year. Emil Huhn was sick most of the summer, but showed promise at the tail end. Huhn has an excellent chance of become one of the first string backstops this year.

Fifth or sixth place seems to be the best the Reds can hope for. There is no silly pennant talk being stirred up there, as the team doesn't look as good as the one Buck Herzog took south last spring. However, Herzog's tactics as manager failed to get the results the team was capable of and if the Reds won't have anything else this year except harmony they are pretty sure to have that and harmony never kept a team down in the race.

The Pneumonia Season.

The cold, damp weather of March seems to be the most favorable for the pneumonia germ. Now is the time to be careful. Pneumonia often results from a cold. The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger. As soon as the first indication of a cold appears take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. As to the value of this preparation, ask one who has used it.—Adv.
