Sell It By The Want Ad Route

The Observer's little want ads do the work. It is surprising how many people turn to them every day and how quickly they meet the eye and bring buyer and seller together.

Look over your premises and see what you have to sell. A want ad describing it will hit the mark and turn something you do not need into cash.

INDIANS' FATE IN PITCHING STAFF

Cleveland, O., March 3.—(United Press)—Pitching is the big problem that must be solved by Manager Lee Forl is he's to make a winner of the Cleveland Indians this year. The men today are spending the first day in their New Orleans training camp.

His second biggest problem is first base. Practically every other position on his lineup is settled.

He has an outfield that doesn't have to take a back seat for any other big league set of outergardeners. With Tris Speaker in center, flanked on the right by Bobby Roth and on the left by Jack Graney the gardens are well protected.

Terry Turner will be back at third, Ray Chapman at short and Bill Wambsganss at second.

There are an even dozen pitchers on the squad of thirty-one players, and Fohl is supremely confident re will get together a classy staff. He is pulling hard for his big right hander, Guy Morton, to come back with the kink gone from his arm. Morton was leading the American league with ten victories and only two defeats when something went wrong with his salary wing last season. It was largely due to his disability that Cleveland dropped after a good start last season.

Stanley Coveleskie, the young Polish spitballer, and Jim Bagby, fadeaway artist, are counted on as mainstays of the hurling corps just as they were last year.

One youngster who is expected to prove a real sensation is OtisLambeth, who came from Topeka late last season. Lambeth displayed a world of stuff, include a fine side-wheel delivery and cross fire ball of which he has remarkable control.

Fohl has two fine southpaws in Fred Coombs and Joe Boehling, the latter obtained in a trade with Washington.

Big Ed Klepfer who was bothered with tonsilitis last season, has had histonsils removed and started south in the middle of February to get in condition by the time hi team-mates arrive.

Popboy Smith, brother-in-law of Bagby, and Albert Gould, the little Iowan, showed good form and ability with the Indians last season and are expected to develop.

There are three likely youngsters getting their first tryout in fast company—Petty from Texas, Dickerson, who won eleven straight and lost none in the Dixie league, and Deardorff from the University of Iowa.

At first base the season may see the passing of Chick Gandill as a big league regular, for young Louis Guisto from Portland, Ore., is banked upon to win that place. Guisto didn't show much in the batting line when he reached Cleveland late last season, but he had a strained back. After the season he went on a trip to Honolulu and Harold Janvrin of the Boston Red Sox who took the same tour predicts Guisto will be a star.

Cleveland also has in reserve for the first base job Ivan Howard, Marty Kavanag, the ex-Tiger slugger, and Ray Miller from the Western league.

Behind the bat the veteran Steve O'Neill is certain to be the mainstay, while Josh Billings, recalled from Louisville, is the present tip for second string catcher. Tom Daly will be third man.

Pete Allison from New Orleans is the only extra outfielder on the Indians roster and is considered sufficient.

Little Joe Evans, third sacker, is back from Portland.

The Indians are trying an interesting experiment this season and will take south with them a pair of sandlotters chosen from the best players of Cleveland's amateur ball teams. They are Yaro Krejoi, catcher, and Johnny Leber, third sacker. The Indians will present a team of giants. Ten of the mare more than 6 feet tall.

JACK BARRY'S ABILITY IS RED SOX TEST

Boston, March 3.—(United Press)—Whether Boston can repeat its American league championship again this year depends, it is admitted, upon whether Jack Barry, new manager of the world's champion, can drive his men to the same speed attained by Bill Carrigan.

Jack started south today with his first string men. Battery men and newspapermen were in the party that climbed aboard a train here for Hot Springs, Ark., where the team again will condition itself.

Charles Wagner, Joseph Devine, Forest Cady and battery men not in Boston will join the train en route.

The Red Sox present the same solid front this year as a year ago. The battery men apepar, if anything, to be slightly stronger than when they took the championsship, and if that's the case little more could be expected.

Babe Ruth, southpaw star, should be better this year. H has had more experience. Wyckoff and Pennock, two hurlers who have been a long time arriving, are expected to show at their best this year. Joe Wood's arm, on his own declaration, is ready for another long season. George Foster says he has recovered his cunning and will accompany the first party to Hot Springs. Dutch Leonard, Ernest Shore and Carl Mays are expected to be just as good as ever.

The outfield probably will be composed of the veterans Lewis and Hooper, with Clarence Walker and Chick Shorten alternating in the middle garden against right and left-handed pitching. This is an outfield which stands out as one of the best in the game, combining fielding with hitting power.

There is nothing uncertain about the infield. Dick Hoblitzel and Del Bainer are available for first base duty. Manager Jack will be at second. Everett Scott at shortstop and Larry Gardner at third base. There will be ndeviation from this unless Harold Janvrin is played for a time at second in order to give Barry a chance for rest.

The infield defense of the Red Sox is only slightly less efficient than the remarkable pitching staff which has lifted the Sox into two world's championships is an many years. It is a defense which tightens with such a visible force that it is almost impossible for an opposing team to send a winning run over in a close game. The presence of Jack Barry, balancing every cog, the coolness of the veteran Gardner, has balanced this club as no other in tre country.

The Red Sox and the Dodgers will open a series of spring exhibition games when they appear March 27 in Memphis. From there they will go to Little Rock for March 29; Oklahoma City, March 30; Kansas City, Mo., March 31 and April 1; Davenport, Iowa, April 2; Peroia, Ill., April 3; Indianapolis, April 4; Lafayette, Ind., April 5. The teams will separate at Lafayette, the Red Sox going to Toledo for a game April 7.

Fraud Order Issued

The United States postal department has issued the following notice concerning the National Mail Order Brokerage Exchange:

Office of First Assistant Postmaster General, Washington, Feb. 26, 1917.

To all postmasters:—The postmaster at Minneapolis, Minn., is still receiving several thousand letters daily addressed to the National Mail Order Brokerage Exchange at 520 Globe building, Minneapolis, Minn.

The attention of all postmasters is therefore again directed to postmaster general's order No. 10069 of Oct. 1916 (published in Daily Bulletin of Oct. 30), of which the following is a copy:

"It having been made to appear by evidence satisfactory to me that the National Mail Order Brokerage Exchange, at 520 Globe building, Minneapolis, Minn., is conducting a scheme for obtaining money through the mails by means of false and fraudulent pretenses, representations and promises, in violation of sections 3929 and 4041 of the revised statutes, as amended, and that communications addressed to this concern are unmailable within the meaning of section 4 of the act of March 2, 1889 (Sec. 484, P. L. & R. 1913), all postmasters are hereby directed to withdraw from the mails all matter of any kind addressed to this concern and return the same to the sender where known and where not known to send such matter to the division dead letters for proper disposition. Wherever possible, postmasters should decline to receive such matter for mailing."

Without incurring any expense to the department postmasters will please give the widest publicity to the above order.

"SAVE THE BABIES"

These are authentic quotations from the pamphlet on baby hygiene by Dr. L. Emmett Holt of Columbia university and Dr. Henry L. K. Shaw of Union university.

At first, use plain water to dilute baby's milk. At 3 months a weak barley water may be used; put 1-2 a level tablespoonful of barley flour in 16 ounces of water and cook for 20 minutes. At six months make it 1 1-2 tablespoonsful of flour cooked in 12 ounces of water. At 9 months make it 3 spoonfuls in 8 ounces of water. A very large baby may require a little more milk than allowed here.
