Practice Pay-day Saving
In these days of high prices and extravagant tastes, it is natural for the entire contents of the pay envelope to slip away unless a careful plan of regular savings has been adopted.
The year is still young. This is an especially good time to begin and practice pay-day saving. Thousands vouch for the success of the plan.

CARDINALS HAVE A TOUGH OUTLOOK FOR COMING SEASON

St. Louis Team if Anything Is Weaker This Year Than Last—Pitchers Are Excellent But They Can't Win A Pennant by Themselves

St. Louis, March 8.—(United Press)—There are the same old disappointments, the same old rocks, and the same old second division finish ahead for the St. Louis Cardinals. Nothing else can be said.
The team, if anything, is weaker this year than last, which is saying considerable.
Miller Huggins has some good ball players running around for him. There is Roger Hornsby, the amazing youth who disputed the batting championship of the National league last year. There is Willie Doak and there is Mule Watson. Both are excellent pitchers. But they can't win a pennant by themselves, nor with the help of the crew that is helping.
First base seems to be just as much of a problem as ever for Huggins, with the probability that Butler and Snyder will alternate on the job just as in former days. Betzel or Butler for second base, Hornsby or Miller for third base and shortstop seems to be about all that can be said for the infield.
Miller, Wilson and Bob Bescher, none of whom has knocked the populace stiff with his antics for some years, are carded for outfield duty.
The catching staff is nothing to enthrall over, with Snyder and Gonzales to do the bulk of the work.
In the pitching staff and there alone, seems to be any fame that the Cardinals may lay claim to. Willie Doak is a real star. If he is in top form he will win a lot of ball games and he will have plenty of help from Lee Meadows, midget star, and Mule Watson, the huge recruit from Texas.

Recruits gobbled up by the midget leader of the St. Louisans do not promise anything sensational. A good finish in the second division would be a victory for Huggins.
ARREST BOOTLEG SUSPECT
Enterprise, Or., March 8.—Henry (Hank) Wright, a well known character of this city, was arrested Sunday by Sheriff F. D. Rinehart charged with bootlegging. While the officers did not find any intoxicating liquor they assert they have sufficient evidence to convict Wright. He was placed in jail and Monday gave a $500 bond.
This is the first arrest made by Sheriff Rinehart since he took office January 1, 1917.
Miss Elva Greene Married.
Miss Elva Greene of Spokane, formerly of La Grande and a sister of Mrs. G. L. Biggers and Rex Greene of this city, was married Sunday to Fred Pein of Okanogan, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Pein will live in Okanogan.
Wallowa Mill Is Closed Down.
O. E. Lemmon of Wallowa, engineer of the NibleyMimnaugh mill there, was in the city this morning on his way to Portland for a week or two, weeks' visit. Mr. Lemmon reports that the Wallowa mill is closed down because the snow is too deep for the camps to run.

Are You Aware?
That Mike Walsh, O-W. dispatcher, will be married in July? This, too, is an unconfirmed rumor, though Mr. Walsh's face became even more rosy when the source of the information was told him.
That the La Grande men were quite surprised to find the women at the Foley Tuesday noon?

That Senator Harry Lane is persona non grata at the present time in Union and Wallowa counties? The senator says he has received many denunciatory telegrams but that the people who approve of him do not telegraph. "they write letters." The Observer found none of those who approve Wednesday when a symposium of opinions of representative men was gathered.

A FEW BUDS PLUCKED IN THE KEYSTONE GARDEN OF ROSES

And Mack Sennett Has Many More Prize Blossoms
Indeed, the Mack Sennett-Keystone studios probably boast more lovely girls than any other motion-picture studio in the world. At present, within the big studio is working twenty-two comedy companies, each of which boasts its quota of youth and beauty.
The girls are not merely pretty. Not one but is able to swim, ride, fence and play tennis, and the studio is even able to point with pride to two baseball nines of beauties. The Number One Keystone Girl team has already challenged the Chicago Cubs to a game when Manager Mitchell brings his boys to Pasadena, California, for the spring training.
