No Use Hopin'; Gas Will Still Be High
Washington, March 13.—(United Press)—Congress was too busy with other things to look into the price of gasoline as suggested by Representative Steenerson's resolution in the house; and in consequence automobile owners probably will pay a good stiff price for their gas again this year. Thousands of cars were kept in their garages last year because gas was too high; and unless a substitute is found or price come down they probably will stay there this year too.

Grand Jury Returns Not a True Bill
The grand jury returned a "not true" bill in the case of Attorney R. J. Kitchen and School Superintendent E. E. Arant of Union, charged with breaking a quarantine law. The men were bound over last month from the Union justice of the peace court. The arrest and trial in the Union justice court split the city into two factions.
Psychology Books In Demand.
In response to the recent demand for books on psychology, the public library has obtained from the state library a number of volumes on the subject, including "Dreams" by Bergson; "Adventures in the Psyche," by Addington Bruce; "Abnormal Psychology," by Coriat; "The Subconscious," by Joseph Jastrow; "Vocational Psychology," by Hollingsworth; "Psychology in Dainty Life," by Seashore; and a few others. These books will be here for three months only.
CHIEF JUSTICE WHITE CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY
Washington, March 12.—(United Press)—Just 23 years ago today Chief Justice White received his appointment to the Supreme Court of the United States. His appointment was a compromise on a fight over two Cleveland appointees who were not wanted by the Senate. Justice White is in excellent health and spirits despite his long service and advanced years. He was United States Senator from Louisiana when appointed.

Officers Furnish Bail.
Portland, Mar. 12.—(United Press)—Peter Peterson, Second officer N. P. Jensen, and John Richardson of the steamer Breakwater, who were arrested on the charge of being implicated in an attempt to ship liquor into Oregon from San Francisco, were released on five hundred dollars bail each.
IT WILL TAKE $653 OR MORE TO DRESS A WOMAN PROPERLY THIS YEAR IN U. S.
Chicago, March 13.—(United Press)—Even when the high cost of living is what it is, here's the Fashion Art League of America taking the joy out of life today with the cheering news that the wife must spend $653 for clothes if she's to be properly dressed this year. The league's fashion show opened here today and that was one of the first things sprung.
The list does not include house dresses or lounging robes or anything like that; just outdoor necessities. Here's the ghastly array: 1 tailored gown, $75; 1 tailored topcoat, $150; 1 afternoon gown, $110; 2 waists for suit, $40; 1 evening gown, $135; 2 pairs shoes and 1 pair slippers, $24; 2 hats, $35; 1 corset, $8; 3 pairs gloves $6; underclothing, $50; stockings, $20. And that the very lowest you can get it, if your wife's going to look like anything at all, the league says.

Are You Aware?
That Dr. R. F. Murphy left Saturday night for Kansas City where he will marry Miss Louise Griffith, March 14. Dr. Murphy and his bride will return to La Grande Saturday and will be at home in the Darland Apartments. Dr. Murphy met Miss Griffith on the Ellison-White Chautauqua circuit several years ago. Miss Griffith had charge of the kindergarten work in the Chautauqua.
"SAVE THE BABIES"
These are authentic quotations from the pamphlet on babies by Dr. L. Emmett Holt of Columbia and Dr. Henry L. K. Shaw of Union University.
In addition to the things listed yesterday as being bad for all babies are: Violent rocking, bouncing and rolling play at any time, play of any sort after feeding, kissing the baby on his mouth, either by members of the family or others, tasting the temperature of the baby's milk by taking the nipple in your mouth, allowing the baby to suck the empty bottle. Tomorrow there will be additions to this list.

COVE NEWSPAPER CERTAIN
Cove, Ore., March 10.—The citizens' mass meeting for discussing ways and means for putting a newspaper plant in Cove resulted in an unexpected three-cornered proposition. L. E. Anderson operates a job plant; C. C. Pratt, a transient resident, has $1000 worth of advertising and subscriptions secured by him with the intention of having a Cove edition printed weekly in another town; Mr. Goss, a printer and publisher from Prosser, Idaho, owns a newspaper plant.
It was agreed that Mr. Anderson should retain his job plant and business, Dr. Pratt to turn his contracts over to Mr. Goss on arrival of his printing plant, and Mr. Goss is to establish the paper in the Cove hotel building. He will open the hotel to the public.

THE HUMAN SIDE OF SIR JOHN JELlicOE
London, March 12.—(United Press)—There are other sides to Sir John Jellicoe, First Lord of the Admiralty, besides his fighting side.
"I have had many touching letters from wives and little children," he said the other day. "The little ones ask, 'When will you let Daddy come home?'"
"I have answered a great many of them myself and have had to say in each case: 'It is impossible. The country needs daddies and husbands, and so long as the country needs them we must ask the wives and children to let them off!'"
