"Quadrangle" of Love Is Shown in "A Wife by Proxy."

In the new Metro-Rolfe wonderplay, "A Wife by Proxy," which will be shown at the Sherry theatre today, Mabel Taliaferro, the star, figures in a "quadrangle" of love and intrigue. The four characters in the "quadrangle" are: A man without a soul; an adventuress, a young man whose fortune and happiness are the spoils sought for, and a witty, clever little immigrant girl, "Jerry," who battles with great odds and wins out in the finish in a manner that is startling.

Miss Taliaferro, as the little immigrant, transplanted to a great American city, is confronted with problems which she solves by simplicity and truthfulness. Always alert and keen about protecting the man she loves, little "Jerry" in "A Wife by Proxy" wins sympathy, admiration, and stirs the heart.

The scheming of the adventuress (Sally Crute) is well planned, and her purpose and that of her partner in crime, while evident to the audience, is not known by "Jerry" and young Burbeck (Robert Walker) until it has advanced to a degree that makes "Jerry's" task to thwart it almost a hopeless one.

But with dogged determination and ready wit, "Jerry" bravely makes the sacrifice that is demanded of her, and the scheming of the adventuress is thwarted. Unlike the ordinary problems which confront the newly arrived immigrant, that which Jerry has to solve is one laid in the home where she is living, and concerns the welfare of her employer—for whom she holds a secret and powerful love.

Worms Make Children Fretful.

Children suffering from worms are dull and irritable, puny and weak, often grind their teeth and cry out in sleep, being a constant source of worry to their parents. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a mild laxative remedy in candy tablet form that children like to take. Promptly effective, it kills and removes the worm from the system. Irregular appetite and bowel movement, lack of interest in play are sure signs of worms. Re lieve your child of this burden. At all druggists, 25c.—Adv.

ARC A DE

House Peters and Myrtle Stedman in "The Happiness of Three Women."

House Peters and Myrtle Stedman will be seen at the Arcade today and tomorrow in the Oliver Morosco Photoplay company's production of "The Happiness of Three Women" adapted for the screen from Albert Payson Terhune's unusual story.

House Peters is one of the most popular and distinguished masculine stars in the photodramatic world. He will be remembered as the dashing bandit, Ramorez, in the Lasky production of "The Girl of the Golden West" and also as leading man for Blanche Sweet in a number of other Lasky productions.

"The Happiness of Three Women" marks his return to the Paramount program, and the fact that he is co-starred with the charming and artistic Myrtle Stedman, lends additional interest.

Miss Stedman will be remembered for her great success in the Morosco production of "An American Beauty" and later as co-star with Sessue Bayakawa in "The Soul of Kura-San."

The story of "The Happiness of Three Women" has to do with the adventures of Billy Craig, a young attorney. His fiancée—the wife of a jealous husband—and the loving helpmeet of a bank cashier, are the three women whose happiness Craig holds in the hollow of his hand. For a time it would appear that he must either sacrifice his fiancée, and incur the wrath of the jealous husband, or send the bank cashier, an innocent man, to prison. How matters are straightened out by the quick wit of a woman must naturally be seen to be enjoyed. One of the unusual features of the production is the exposure of the method used by clever attorneys to secure confessions from criminals.

The production, made for the Morosco company by William D. Taylor, is lavished as to settings and detail, and has been most artistically photographed.

In the cast supporting the stars are L. W. Steers, Daisy Robinson, William Hutchason and Milton Brown.
