THE MELTING POT

Whatever fate may befall this republic, whatever vicissitudes or disasters may be before her, this praise at least can never be denied to her; this glory she has won forever, that for 100 years she has been hospitable and generous; that she gave to the stranger a welcome—opened to him all the treasures of her liberty, gave him free scope for all his ability, a free career, and fair play.

And this it is that most endears this republic to other nations, and has made fast friends for her in the homes of the people all over the earth. It is this that most of all makes her name beloved and honored; that she has been always broad and liberal in her sympathies.—Richard O'Gorman.

North Powder News

North Powder, March 26.—(Special)—L. S. Cool, editor of the North Powder News, who has been traveling throughout the Pacific Northwest returned home the latter part of the week to visit a few days with his family. He reports heavy snows in parts of Oregon and Idaho where this time of the year they are always putting in their crops.

A buyer of hides was in town Friday and he reports that there is not as many hides from stock starved to death as last year at this time, but that in places the feed situation for the range stock is getting serious.

Albert Hutchinson is hauling out material to his farm to remodel his house. He purchased the place last fall from John Shaw and will now improve it prior to moving on it this spring.

James Dalton and wife are spending a few days at Medical Springs for the benefit of Mr. Dalton's health.

Harlan Stewart, of Union, was a Friday business visitor. John Spain moved his horses in and is feeding them hay as he reports the loss of some from feeding straw.

William Byfield and a crew of men from Union came up a few days ago to bale several tons of hay for the Albers Brothers Milling company, who purchased the hay last fall from Mr. Higginbotham. Mr. Higginbotham refused to let the men go to work and it looks as if the contracting parties may have trouble before the matter is settled.

Mrs. Boylan visited her daughter in the Baker hospital a few days ago and reports that she is getting along nicely and will soon be at home.

John Shaw was a La Grande visitor Friday.

Elwin Davis returned from a visit with his parents and friends in Union a few days ago.

Dr. and Mrs. Barnes returned home last week from a visit with their daughter who lives in Joseph.

The De Luxe Feature FILM Company PRESENTS

"THE LIBERTINE"

John Mason and Alma Hanlon

TODAY AND TOMORROW

Adults 20c

"The Libertine" is a story of modern life, strong and gripping. It brings home with grim realism the great lesson that 'once in every man or woman's life comes the moment to decide in the strife for truth or falsehood for the good or evil side.' A surprise finish comes like a breath of June roses, and the story ends bringing close to the hearts of the audience the powerful and timely moral of a great old play—forever new.
