Imbler News Items

Motor Service Promise Makes Imbler Citizens Happy—Lovers Wait Spring's Advent.

Imbler, March 23.—(Special)—Rev. Cathers, of Elgin, visited in Imbler during the first part of the week.

J. W. Oliver, of La Grande, was down Wednesday to increase the insurance on our school building.

Tom Page and Kenneth Billings are still confined to their beds, but both are improving in condition.

Ernest E. Richards, field worker for Willamette university, was here Wednesday as advance agent for the glee club, soon to appear in Imbler. He gave a talk to the high school students, especially the seniors, whom he attempted to get more interested in higher education.

Booth Larsen has made another trip to the middle west with several carloads of apples. As the local crop is packed out and sold, Mr. Larsen purchased these cars in La Grande and from eastern Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Fox are in Portland where their four-year-old daughter Dorothy is receiving special medical treatment.

Mrs. L. H. Bergold and daughter Florence stopped off last Sunday to spend a day here. They were on their way from Roseburg to Chicago. The Bergolds formerly resided in Imbler.

Doris Childers left Monday for Salt Lake, Utah, where he will work for an electric light company.

Mrs. William Henry and her two youngest daughters and Mrs. William Taylor and children arrived Thursday from Harney valley and will reside here, temporarily at least. Mr. Henry went on to Utah looking for a farm. Nearly all the Imbler emigrants who located in Harney valley a year ago have returned.

A delegation of Imbler leaguers attended the program and social at All-ee Saturday evening.

Another carload of coal came in this week and wood haulers have been able to make several trips to the hills lately, so there is no further danger of fuel shortage.

People here are rejoicing over the motor car service which will make it possible to spend a day trading in La Grande without remaining in the city over night.

If spring doesn't arrive soon it will disappoint the principals in the three or four weddings awaiting its coming.

Farmers Attention.
We pay cash for all farm produce. Fruits, vegetables, poultry, eggs, dressed hogs and pigs. Highest market price.—La Grande Fruit Co., Wholesale Dealers.—Adv. 3-25-1w.

Greater grows the sale of

Wirthmor and Welworth Waists

for more pronounced is the supremacy of the value

Charming new Spring models are now arriving—priced as formerly at $1.00 and $2.00.

These desirable Waists can be sold by just one good merchant in every city.

This is an announcement of decided interest to every woman who believes in economy

"There will be no advance in the price of Wirthmor and Welworth Waists—and the quality will be fully maintained."

"How possible" you ask and we answer:

"The contract method under which they are made and sold—the purchase of materials months in advance—the further lowering of manufacturing and overhead costs—the elimination of all selling expense."

New models in both the Wirthmor and Welworth on sale tomorrow
