Barrett Supports Road Bonds.

That Senator C. A. Barrett, of Athena, is strongly for the bonding issue is shown by a letter just received from the gentleman by Mr. Nelson. The news is of interest inasmuch as Mr. Barrett was one of the strong opponents of the bonding plan submitted for Umatilla county last spring. He is one of many influential men who opposed the county bonding plan but now support the state-wide bonding campaign.—Pendleton Oregonian.

The man, who refuses to take part in public affairs but spends his energies wholly on his private affairs, wakes up after a while and realizes that his business and prosperity is made possible only for the prosperity of all.—Wallowa Sun.

From a Lad of Ten

Dear Americans: It is war here. We have known hunger and need. We have been fugitives. But, thank God, America has helped us out of need by sending us clothing, beans, bacon and bread. We thank America and the Americans also, and every day we pray Our Father for brave America. —Alfons Janssens.
