

KIRSCHBAUM CLOTHES

Make sure it is ALL WOOL

If fitting qualities, appearance and enduring shapeliness are considerations with you, insist upon clothes of all-wool.

As loosely woven—as sparingly lined as you please—but all-wool!

All wool tingles in every strand with life—cotton is characterless, lusterless, dead.

Wool responds to the tailor's needle and shapes itself under his touch—cotton is inflexible and unresponsive.

Cotton hidden in a fabric of wool cuts its way to the front, so that a suit which starts out as if it might be all-wool ends up by looking as if it might be all-cotton.

This is an all-wool store, proud of its connection with America's dominant all-wool house

—A. B. Kirschbaum Co.—whose advertising has given country-wide fame to the famous slogan:

"All-wool—100 percent and no compromise!"
$15, 16.50, $20, $25 and up to $40

Hints on the Care of Clothes

Brush your suit or overcoat before you put it on and when you take it off. This will keep out the grit and dust, which not only wears out the fabric but gives it a faded appearance.

Don't wear a suit for more than three days in succession. Then give it a thorough brushing and have it pressed.

Once a month turn the coat and trousers inside out and hang them out of doors for a thorough airing.

A systematic observance of these simple rules, will add at least six months to the life of the clothes.

Violet Mersereau in Latest Bluebird. "Susan's Gentleman" will be exhibited, in Bluebird photoplays at the Colonial theatre today and tomorrow with Violet Mersereau playing the principal roles—for there are two leading parts, both played by this dainty actress, and both requiring just the particular skill and artistry with which she is so abundantly gifted. "The woman scorned" plays an important part in the progress of the narrative. Because Sir Bevis Neville, who was now in love with Nancy Croyden, mistress of Croyden hall had cast aside the love of Ora Tourette, a fascinating and scheming French widow, Ora designed to be revenged. Therefore, she aided Nancy in an adventure with her groom, resulting in Nancy eloping with her servant to America, and filling her aristocratic father's heart with bitterness. Then the real "human interest" begins, with the arrival of a baby girl in a New York tenement, Nancy Croyden passing away to give life to Susan Flynn, as a heritage of a romantic and mad marriage. How Susan finally makes her way back to Croyden hall and into the heart of her grandfather, through a series of sensational adventures, constitutes gripping entertainment that will be enjoyed by all classes of "fans."

Worms Make Children Fretful.

Children suffering from worms are dull and irritable, puny and weak, often grind their teeth and cry out in sleep, being a constant source of worry to their parents. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a mild laxative remedy in candy tablet form that children like to take. Promptly effective, it kills and removes the worm from the system. Irregular appetite and bowel movement, lack of interest in play are sure signs of worms. Relieve your child of this burden. At all druggists, 25c.—Adv.

Chestnut Wood.

An investigation by the department of agriculture shows that blight-killed chestnut wood is just as durable as healthy timber.

Times are never too hard to be charitable to those who have less than you.

The Pneumonia Season.

The cold, damp weather of March seems to be the most favorable for the pneumonia germ. Now is the time to be careful. Pneumonia often results from a cold. The quicker a cold is gotten rid of the less the danger. As soon as the first indication of a cold appears take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. As to the value of this preparation, ask one who has used it.—Adv.

Success Means Work Says Miss Pearson.

Virginia Pearson, famous beauty of a dozen picture successes, has always found that it takes work to accomplish anything worth while. Miss Pearson, who appears in the William Fox film, "Bitter Truth," has been fashioning her own career since the age of 15, and she has never yet found an obstacle too big for her to overcome.

When the lure of the stage got the upper hand, Miss Pearson went to New York, joined Henry Savage's company in "The Stolen Story," and began the career that made her famous. She was soon starring in such plays as "Under Southern Skies," "Arizona," "Ingomar," and many of the classics. Shakespeare, Ibsen, Pinnero, Wilde and a host of other writers of the first rank were among those works she interpreted.

When Robert Hilliard acted "A Fool There Was," Miss Pearson was chosen to play the role of the vampire woman. Her success in this work led to other parts of a similar kind, and the beautiful woman had soon established a reputation among the best interpreters in this line of acting.

Truth is the property of no individual, but is the treasure of all men.—Emerson.

A Bilious Attack.

When you have a bilious attack your liver fails to perform its functions. You become constipated. The food you eat ferments in your stomach instead of digesting. This inflames the stomach and causes nausea, vomiting and a terrible headache. Take Chamberlain's Tablets. They will tone up your liver, clean out your stomach and you will soon be as well as ever. They only cost a quarter.—Adv.
