ARCADE

Fannie Ward Coming.

Having scored such a pronounced success in "Witchcraft" and "The Years of the Locust," Fannie Ward, the versatile Lasky star, will be seen on Friday and Saturday in the Jesse L. Lasky production "Betty to the Rescue." Beatrice De Mille's and Leighton Osmun's clever comedy drama, which is the Paramount picture at the Arcade theatre.

In "Betty to the Rescue," Miss Ward has a play for which she is especially adapted, and which is unlike anything in which she has ever appeared for the Lasky organization. Instead of the beautiful society matron as she was seen in "The Years of the Locust" the captivating star is now a romping, hoydenish tom-boy with tousled hair, barefoot and clad frequently in a dilapidated pair of overalls.

The scenes of "Betty to the Rescue" were laid in the wonderful orange and mining districts of Southern California. Betty's dying father, who has sunk all his money in a mine, leaves her in the care of some friends who make her believe she is wealthy until their orange crop is wiped out by a sudden frost. How Betty realizing this, takes the management into her own hands, and accidentally discovers that her mine is worth a fortune, and goes into the arms of the man whom she loves, is depicted in a careful and delightfully original manner.

Supporting Miss Ward in the cast are Jack Dean, James Neill, Charles West, Lillian Leighton and Ted Duncan.
