Pendleton April 5.—(Special)—Ernest Vehrs, Charles Johnson and L. C. Bulls were among the La Grande residents in Pendleton Tuesday.

Al Daniel was over from La Grande Tuesday.

M. F. Davis, of Union, was among the visitors to Pendleton Tuesday.

Colon Eberhard, La Grande attorney, was appearing before the U. S. district court Tuesday.

N. G. Stoddard, of Perry, was here for federal court the past few days.

J. H. Minnaugh, H. C. Plass, Ed Bean and C. H. Finn, all of La Grande, were here for the federal court session.

Mrs. Fred Schilke, of La Grande, was a guest of The Cline Saturday.

If so, don't fail to read about the U. S. Cream Separator in W. H. Bohnenkamp & Co.'s ad this week—read it anyway; people, especially the women folks, are saying that the U. S. Cream Separator is so sanitary there is nothing left to be desired in that direction.

In order that you may know just why, W. H. Bohnenkamp & Co. would like to show you the non-rusting Nickel-Silver skimming device, also how in three minutes it can be washed perfectly in a small metal box-shaped machine made for the purpose.

There are a dozen more sanitary features. For satisfactory results you won't miss anything if you talk these matters over with W. H. Bohnenkamp & Co.—adv.

Do you feel the need of a better Cream Separator than you have now?

College Men Make Name For America In The Balkans

Band of Fifty Young Americans Sailed For France a Year Ago to Become Ambulance Drivers—Graphic Story Related of the Horrors of War.

BY WILBUR S. FORREST
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Paris, March 15.—(By mail)—A little band of American college men are making a name for America in the Balkans today.

This band is composed of more than 50 young Americans who sailed for France about a year ago to become ambulance drivers for the American Ambulance Field service, under the direction of A. Platt Andrew, of La Porte, Ind., and Gloucester, Mass., former assistant secretary of the U. S. treasury.

Two sections of ambulances in addition to many others now working on the western front are with the French armies in the Monastir region of reconquered southern Serbia.

Carrying wounded always at night, over wild roads, through rocky mountain passes and over mountains is only part of the work these American college men are doing, according to Ennis Brown of Charleston, S. C., who has just reached Paris on his way back to America. Brown joined the ambulance service while a student at Virginia University. He is the first American to return since the Americans embarked at Marseilles for Salonica.

"For months since our Allies took Monastir our ambulances have been very busy in the Balkans," Brown told the United Press today. "From our headquarters near Monastir we have carried the wounded from the trenches north of Monastir; from Koritza to the west, where the French blesses come from the front lines by mule back over the mountains and from other points wherever we are directed by the French military authorities. Sometimes it has been necessary to use good strong American arm work to pull even our light American cars over the difficult roads."

"To give some sort of an idea what the wounded are going through, it is sometimes fifteen days before a man reaches a good comfortable hospital after he is wounded on the front line west of Koritza. Our ambulances can only penetrate as far as Koritza. Here we take aboard men who have traveled for days on mule back. We then rush them as fast as possible toward comfort in the nearest thing to a mule that can be found in the Balkans—our little Detroit made ambulances."

Sometimes the American drivers take their cars almost to the front trenches north of Monastir. Usually, however, we can pick up a load in the town itself.

"All drivers are armed with revolvers now on account of the Turkish and Bulgarian comitadjis who have no use for Americans. Several drivers, including John Imbrey of Washington, D. C., have had adventures with them but luckily so far no one has been hurt."

When Brown left the Balkans seven cars of the two sections had been smashed 'y shells, four of them beyond repair. Among the members of his section were: Arthur Blumenthal, of Wilmington, N. C., famous football star at Princeton in 1913; Lovering Hill, New York City, former Harvard student; Powell Fenton, Philadelphia, of the University of Pennsylvania; Charles Baird, of New York City, and many others, mostly Harvard students.

Before Brown went to the Balkans he had driven an American ambulance through the big attack at Verdun last year. The termination of his six months' enlistment and ill health caused him to leave for home. Despite finding himself on a ship en route which was the victim of a submarine in the Mediterranean, Brown reached Toulon and Paris in safety.

Everything Is Ready For Billy Sunday's Invasion of New York

Will Start His Fight on the Devil Sunday Morning in Giant Tabernacle—Big Choir Organized—Everyone in New York Has Been Notified—Billy Intends to Drop Slang But Can He Do It?

New York, April 5.—(United Press)—Billy Sunday's giant tabernacle is all ready for him to start his fight on the Devil in New York at Broadway and 168th street Sunday morning. The big choir is organized. Every citizen, large and small; every working girl, every boy, every laborer, every scrubwoman, has been told and told of Sunday's coming. Thousands of them have been organized into bible classes, personal workers, singers and other assistants to the redoubtable Billy. This New York campaign is expected to be Sunday's greatest triumph of his worst tumble from the pedestal of evangelism. New York awaits him without much to say. It is inordinately curious to see what he looks like and how he acts. Broadway and Boogie have paid little attention to him. He may stir up a fight with the Great White Way after he gets started though. Among his most ardent supporters and financial aids here is John D. Rockefeller, Jr., and Mrs. Rockefeller. Sunday has said he will be a bit tamer here with his slang and his slams than elsewhere. New York wonders why. It rather expected him to tear loose and go the limit and over. But Sunday says slang is out of use mostly now and he thinks there are a few good theatres and cabaret restaurants too.

Billy has promised to turn his tabernacle into a big recruiting station in case the United States goes to war with Germany. His son George M. Sunday will join the aviation corps, he says.

Velvet
THE SMOOTHEST SMOKING TOBACCO
A STRONG
tobacco may have lots of flavor, but you can't smoke as much of it as you want. A mild tobacco often has only its mildness to recommend it. VELVET combines mildness and flavor in such a way you can smoke all you want, and want all you smoke.

THE fren'ship that's hardest to gain, usually lasts the longest. The harder it is to please yo' tobacco taste, the longer you will stick to Velvet.
