Girls' Glee Club of Baker High School To Give Concert Here, Friday, April 13, Accompanied by Baker Orchestra

BY GENEIVE STODDARD.

Friday, April 13, La Grande is to have the opportunity of hearing the Girls' Glee club of Baker high school, accompanied by the Baker high school orchestra. Baker's football teams, basketball teams, and track teams have often visited La Grande and La Grande's teams have gone there, but this is the first year that the girls have been given such a trip. This year the Baker girls contributed such vital help to the student body that this trip is the high school's recognition of their service.

The Baker student body was considerably in debt, but the girls of the school canvassed the town selling tickets for the football game which was played with Walla Walla, and a sum exceeding $500 was raised. The school felt keenly this bit of cooperation on the part of its girls and to express their appreciation and in compliance with the saying, "Turn about is fair play," Mr. Strange offered the trip to La Grande to the Glee club. The receipts from this entertainment will be divided between the two schools, the amount accruing to La Grande to aid in eliminating student body expenses, the Baker portion to help pay the expenses of the trip. The Baker young people will charter a car, bringing about a hundred in all will arrive Friday April 13. The La Grande schools will probably be visited by them and in the evening the concert will be given. It is the wish of the faculties that the two schools may be brought closer together and that a kindred feeling be established between the two cities. La Grande students are invited to Baker next year and they are working to make this affair a success so that this visiting between the two schools will become an annual event. The Glee club is under the direction of Mrs. A. C. Strange and has a membership of about forty girls. "In India," is the name of the comic opera which will be given by the club in the high school auditorium, April 13, at 8 p. m. This opera will be accompanied by a twenty piece orchestra. B. Parlett, of Pendleton, is at the Sommer.

THE WHAT-YOU-MAY COLUMN

BY "GM" Rubbers.

Something dreadful has happened to rubbers. They used to climb all over man's feet and humiliate him terribly. They spread themselves around at an awful rate, unashamed. But here lately they've grown reticent. They seem to have suffered qualms. They hide on the bottom of men's feet and cling delicately to the soles of his shoes, as nearly out of sight as possible. What is the matter, do you suppose? Can it be that after riding man's instep since time immemorial rubbers decided they had no business there and go off? It looks like it.

Balanced Rations.

Our wife has the balanced ration bug. You know what that means. It means that you have to swallow as much of one thing as you do of another so your stomach won't get lopsided. You realize as well as we do that if you get a pound of spinach on the left side of your Little Mary and only half a pound of mashed potatoes on the right side your portico's bound to sag on one corner. But there's nothing new about the balanced ration. It's old stuff. We can remember, when we were a little boy, seeing our Uncle Will indulging in his balanced ration down on the farm. The only difference was that while our wife balances ours on a sliding scale of vitamins, calories and proteins, he balances his on his knife.

Do you want to buy or sell something? If so it will pay you to read the classified ad columns in this issue. To keep up with the buying, selling and trading news of the county read these columns in The Observer every day. They always have a number of bargains which will interest the buyer, and "wants" that offer opportunities to some one.
