Are You Missing Any Messages Intended For You?

You receive your mail promptly—telegrams always reach you—telephone messages usually get to you—people who have messages to deliver to you personally are measurably sure to find you "in."

But it always happens that some of the people who have business to do with you do not know you. They could not send a telegram, or letter, or 'phone message for, while it may sometimes happen that they live nearby, they are strangers to you.

Having an offer to make which might be of more immediate interest to you than to anybody else in the city, they must get their message to you through the classified advertising columns.

Unless you are a regular reader of these columns you will miss the message. Somebody will get it, and respond to it—someone to whom, perhaps, it is not so important as it is to you.

If you realized that your letters were going astray—that telegrams addressed to you were not reaching you—you would be anxious to find an immediate remedy for such a condition.

Why not also see to it that the classified advertising messages intended for you shall not be lost?

No Property To Be Confiscated

Anxiety of Foreign Subjects That Bank Deposits May Be Seized Is Unfounded—Private Rights Will Be Respected.

The Federal Reserve Bank has issued the following bulletin entitled: "Private Rights of Citizens and of Subjects of Foreign States to be Respected Alike."

To Member Banks of Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco.—The Department of State on February 8th issued the following statement:

"It having been reported to him that there is anxiety in some quarters on the part of persons residing in this country who are the subjects of foreign states lest their bank deposits or other property should be seized in the event of war between the United States and a foreign nation, the President authorizes the statement that all such fears are entirely unfounded. The government of the United States will in no circumstances take advantage of a state of war to take possession of property in which international understandings and the recognized law of the land give it no just claim or title. It will scrupulously respect all private rights alike of its own citizens and of the subjects of foreign states."

It has been suggested by the Federal Reserve Board that member banks give wide publicity to the above statement and that wherever it appears advisable it should be printed on placards and posted prominently.

Yours truly, A. KAINS, Governor.

Wit and Humor.

Ed Poland: "Just laughed my fool head off when I read this story: An Irishman and a German were caught by the rebels during the Civil War, and were accused of being spies, and both were sentenced to be hung. Across the river was the Union army. The rebel general ordered the official hangman to string the Irishman and the German on a tree overhanging the river. As the Irishman and German were being led to the tree, the Irishman passed a half-dollar into the hangman's hand and requested that a rotten rope be used. The hangman complied with the request, and the rope broke with the weight of the Irishman and the Irishman dropped into the river and swam across to the Union army. Then the German passed a half-dollar into the hangman's hand, and huskily whispered: 'Mein Gott, use a strong rope for this Dutchman can't swim!'—Aitchison Globe.

Bert Hamilton drove a ton Republic truck to Lone Pine last week over bad roads, a distance of seven miles. Part of the way he drove through 18 inches of mud. Several persons bet that he wouldn't make it. Hamilton bet that he would. And when he got there he took on a ton load and drove back, all the time having power to spare, and didn't test the full strength of his car. Mr. Clevenger accompanied him on the trip. Mr. Hamilton challenges any other truck to equal his record. He asks that the readers watch for the report of his 3-4 ton test in this paper.

Constipation and Indigestion.

These are twin evils. Persons suffering from indigestion are often troubled with constipation. Mrs. Robert Allison, Mattoon, Ill., writes that when she first moved to Mattoon she was a great sufferer from indigestion and constipation. Food distressed her and there was a feeling like a heavy weight pressing on her stomach and chest. She did not rest well at night, and felt worn out a good part of the time. One bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets corrected this trouble so that she has since felt like a different person.—Adv.

Picked Up By The Stroller

Some one asked us to spring that old one about "In the spring the young man's fancy" and we refuse.

I strolled into Mr. Leiter's office the other day and he said if anyone brought in a poem labeled "The Beautiful Snow" he'd feed him or her to the lions. And I believe he meant it, whereupon I strolled out carrying with me the poem I had laboriously written entitled, "Spring Has Come" and which I had expected to sell for enough to buy a Cheroot. But I called on Larry Larison and he gave me one so I don't feel so bad.

If I knew where to get it I'd drink some dandelion wine for my spring fever.

Clear Your Skin in Spring. Spring house cleaning means cleaning inside and outside. Dull pimply skin is an aftermath of winter inactivity. Flush your intestines with a mild laxative and clean out the accumulated wastes, easy to take, they do not gripe. Dr. King's New Life Pills will clear your complexion and brighten your eye. Try Dr. King's New Life Pills tonight and throw off the sluggish winter shell. At drug-gists, 25c.—Adv.

"I will handle the Simplex line of silos, Papec ensilage cutter, Simplex separators, bulldog gasoline engines, and in fact the full line of Simplex goods," said Mr. Bush today concerning his new affiliations.
