First Aid. The other day a lady was knocked down in Clark street by a horse, but happily escaped with a few scratches. A gentleman rescued her and said: "Can I get you anything?" She (much out of breath and grasping with excitement)—Oh—oh—can you get me—? He—So—no brandy? She (much out of breath and gasping)—I feel I'm falling all to pieces. Even after you have clinched your argument what have you gained?

Summerville News

Pleasant Grove Sunday School Holds Election—Mr. Johnson Is Re-elected—Mr. Archer Holds Preaching Services.

Summerville, April 12.—(Special)—Pleasant Grove Sunday School held its annual election of officers April 1. There were very few changes made and most of the officers will hold their positions for another year. Mr. Johnson has been superintendent for three years and was unanimously elected for the following year. The officers are Claude Hale, assistant superintendent; Bessie Hale, secretary and treasurer; Mrs. Widener, assistant secretary and treasurer; Ray Johnston, organist; Mr. Spencer, chorister; Eva Whitlark and Stella Arnoldus, librarians. The Sunday School gave a short program Easter which was well attended considering the condition of the roads.

Mr. Archer of Summerville holds preaching services at the school house the second and fourth Sundays of every month.

Breaking the News.

In Liverpool there is a man famous for his calmness on every occasion. One day he strolled leisurely into the office of a friend. "I've just had a chat with your wife," he began. "Why, I didn't know she was in town." "Oh, she wasn't in town," replied the other. "I called at your house." "I didn't know she was receiving today," said the husband with some surprise. "I thought she had a headache." "She didn't mention it to me," said the calm man. "There was quite a crowd at the house." "A crowd!" echoed the husband. "Yes," went on the calm man. "They came with the fire engine." "The fire engine!" gasped the husband. "Oh, it's all right," went on the calm man. "It's all out now. It wasn't much of a fire, but I thought you'd like to know of it."

The American Flag

(Evening Telegram) When Freedom from her mountain height Unfurled her standard to the air, She tore the azure robe of night And set the stars of glory there. She mingled with its gorgeous dyes The milky baldric of the skies, And stripped its pure celestial white With streakings of the morning light; Then from her mansion in the sun She called her eagle bearer down, And gave unto his mighty hand The symbol of her chosen land.

Majestic monarch of the cloud, Who rear's aloft thy regal form, To hear the tempest trummings loud When strive the warriors of the storm, And see the lightning lances driven, And rolls the thunder-drum of heaven, Child of the sun! to thee 'tis given To guard the banner of the free, To hover in the sulphur smoke, To ward away the battle stroke, And bid its blendings shine afar, Like rainbows in the shroud of war, The harbingers of victory!

Flag of the brave; thy fold shall fly, The sign of hope and triumph high, When speaks the signal trumpet tone, And the long line comes gleaming on, Ere yet the life-blood, warm and wet, Has dimmed the glistening bayonet, Each soldier eye shall brightly turn To where the sky-born glories burn, And, as his springing steps advance, Catch war and vengeance from the glance. And when the cannon-mountings loud Heave in wild wreaths the battle shroud, And gory sabers rise and fall Like shoots of flame on midnight's pall, Then shall thy meteor glances glow, And cowering foes shall slink beneath, Each gallant arm that strikes below That lovely messenger of death.

Flag of the sea! on ocean wave Thy stars shall glitter o'er the brave; When death, careening on the gale, Sweeps darkly round the bellied sail, And frightened waves rush wildly back Before the broadside's reeling rack, Each dying wanderer of the sea Shall look at once to heaven and thee, And smile to see thy splendor fly In triumph o'er his closing eye.

Flag of the free heart's hope and home! By angel hands to valor given; Thy stars have lit the welkin dome, And all thy hues were born in heaven, Forever float that standard sheet! Where breathes the foe but falls before us, With Freedom's soil beneath our feet, And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us? —Joseph Rodman Drake.

Not Bad for a Princess.

(Boston Transcript.) Royalties are very much like other folks. They can even be moderately bright at times. The czar said when proposing: "The emperor, my father, has commanded me to offer you my hand and heart." "And my grandmother the queen," replied the Princess Rex, "has commanded me to accept your hand; your heart I will take myself."

The Heart of the Dairy

Look well to the Heart,—it's the "vital spot" in anybody or anything. The Heart of the Dairy is the Cream Separator. The Heart of the Cream Separator is the bowl—the Skimming Device in particular. The U. S. not only holds the World's Record for close skimming, but is the only Cream Separator with a non-rusting skimming device and a non-rusting guarantee. No Rust Means Easier Cleaned. No Rust Means More Sanitary. No Rust Means More Durable. No Rust Means Better Value. Remember we absolutely Guarantee these Nickel-Steel sections against rust, for all time, and on top of our Guaranteed is the Maker's Guarantee to both of us. See if you can find this tremendously important feature in any other Cream Separator. If you can't, then buy a U. S.—the World's Record close skimming separator. W. H. Bohnenkamp Co.

Things worth knowing are contained in the unusually attractive advertisements being inserted by W. H. Bohnenkamp & Co., the local selling agents for the well-known and very popular United States Cream Separators. All you who keep cows, whether you expect to buy a cream separator or not, will be greatly benefited by reading them. W. H. Bohnenkamp & Co. will be glad to show you either at the store or on your farm the unusual features that make the United States Cream Separator such a desirable machine.

Alicel News Notes

Special Easter Services Held—Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Murphy Return from Visit to Iowa—Schools Do Good Work—High School Students Organize Library Society. Alicel, Ore., April 9.—(Special)—Easter Sunday was a great day for the people of Alicel. Special music was prepared for Sunday School and the morning services. Dr. O'Farrell, a former missionary to Africa, was present and delivered a very interesting address on African missions. The Epworth league was carried out in accordance with the day. Rev. Richards presented some slides on Africa after their league lesson, which were enjoyed by all. Good Friday was also observed by the people of Alicel. Rev. Richards presented some of the Life of Christ on the screen, the pictures went splendidly with the idea of the day. E. M. Murphy and wife, who have been visiting in Iowa since January, returned to their home April 6. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy report the weather conditions slightly different than those of the Grande Ronde valley; the temperature there being ninety degrees in the shade one day this spring. However the snow in the valley is leaving rapidly, the purr of motors and the rattle of wheels taking place of the creak of the runners. Farmers are contemplating on spring plowing in a short time. The public and high schools of Alicel are getting along nicely with their work. A literary society has been formed among the high school students. This society held its second meeting April 6 and presented the following program: Violin Solo—Clyde Webb.

Selection—High School Male Quartet. Vocal Solo—Thelma Standley. Violin Solo—Prof. Christensen. Debate—"Resolved that all foreign immigrants who can neither read nor write shall be barred from entering the United States." The affirmative: Harold Wallsinger, Ruth Johnson, Pansy Van Housen. The negative: Florence Thompson, Ruth Schaefer, Eva Watkins. The declination went in favor of the negative. Miss Edna Miller, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Hot Laks sanatorium recently is reported in a recovering condition. The motor car seems to be the most popular means of travel for the people of Alicel. The following took the car to La Grande and other places during the past week: M. F. Van Housen, Mary Taylor, Florence Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Ledbetter, C. C. Welch, A. L. Taylor, Bruce Clarke, J. A. Gaskill, J. Tressler, E. Brown and wife, B. F. Webb, Nora Webb, H. W. Wallsinger, Ray Ledbetter, C. E. Van Housen, Clyde Webb, Ruth Johnson, Enoch Johnson, Margaret Taylor, R. M. Taylor, George Temple, Giles Van Housen and Mrs. H. J. Richards. The public and high schools of Alicel joined this morning in singing "The Star-Spangled Banner," "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean," and "America," after which a salute to the flag was given, with a vim and a fighting patriotism, by all the school staff as well as pupils.

SICK WIFE'S STORY SURPRISES LA GRANDE.

The following has surprised La Grande: A business man's wife suffered from dyspepsia and constipation for years. Although she dieted she was so bloated her clothes would not fit. One spoonful buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika relieved her instantly. Because Adler-ika empties both large and small intestine it relieves any case constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has quickest action of anything we ever sold.—Putman's Drug store.—Adv. 4-12-17

Starvation Follows War? Not Always so

La Grande people with moderate means shudder at the prospects of prohibitive prices on sugar, potatoes, flour and other food necessities. At first thought this alarm is justified, but there is a panacea for high prices in the food line.

PURE MILK

is the solution. Ask your family physician about the food values of clean milk, and then compare our prices of $2.50 per month for a quart daily of our clarified milk with other foods and you will discover that
