Stock Losses Not Heavy.
 Pendleton, April 14.—(Special)—Nato Raines, who is in today from his John Day cattle ranch, states that reports of the stock losses in that vicinity during the winter have been exaggerated. The losses have been but little above normal, he states, though the winter has been an expensive one from a feed standpoint.
Women Voters Peeved.
 Trinidad, Colo., April 14.—(United Press)—Silk stockings don't have anything to do with a lady's ability to cast her ballot intelligently, say the female ballotists of this town. And they're on the war path today because some mere male person made disparaging remarks about "women with silk stockings and high-heeled shoes voting on questions that effect the common people." The women assert that "the womanhood of the town has been openly discredited" and they promise retaliation at the next election.
Barmains Tabooed.
 Glasgow, April 14.—(United Press)—City fathers made the gentle barmain taboo; barmen were all conscripted; the fathers won't let the barmains come back and in consequence the old boys who love their foaming brew are having a hard time of it. Warnings Are Issued.
 Bremerton, Wash., April 14.—(United Press)—There's no doubt about the fact that war exists when one sees such warnings as are posted today about the Puget Sound navy yard here. The warning, issued by Captain R. E. Cooner, commandant, follows:
 "All persons operating vessels, boats, skiffs, etc., other than those belonging to the naval and military forces of the United States are warned to keep out of the waters adjacent to the Navy Yard and not to approach closer than 500 feet to the line between the ends of Coaling Pier No. 1 and Pier No. 8.
 "Vessels or boats disregarding this warning will be fired upon."
A Shingle Helps.
 Vancouver, Wash., April 14.—(United Press)—A shingle properly applied is one of the best aids to patriotism, believes Marshall J. Clapp, teacher at Skamania. Clapp heard one of his pupils refer to the flag profanely. Clapp whipped the boy in the best old-fashioned way, then made him kiss the flag, cheer for Uncle Sam and, surrounded by pupils kiss the flag again and say, "God bless it."
Go To School Day.

Found Cooked Rat.
 Portland, Ore., April 14.—(United Press)—After prisoners in the city jail had discovered a nicely cooked rat in their boiled potatoes at breakfast the police started out on a hunt for the restaurant proprietor who feeds the prisoners. He may be prosecuted for violating the pure food law.

Particular Printing
 It pays to buy good printing, because whether it represents a catalog, a business announcement, a booklet, a letterhead or business card, you will be judged by it. Our printers are men of long experience, and we have a shop that is equipped for the highest grade of work. Our prices are not cheap, except in the sense that they are mighty reasonable for the quality of work.
 Let us give you an estimate of the next job you have.
