MEDICAL MEN OFFER SERVICE TO AID UNCLE SAM IN MUSTERING IN TROOPS.

Washington, April 18.—(United Press)—Several thousand medical men, mostly life insurance inspectors, have offered their services to President Wilson for emergency work in examining recruits for the army and navy. The offer was made through Mrs. Fula McCleary of the Life Extension Institute of New York. It is hoped to avoid the delay in mustering in which accompanied the Mexican mobilization, largely due to lack of inspectors.

MY WORD—THE VULGAR PIPE

London, April 8.—(By Mail)—(United Press)—"An undoubted symptom of the break-up of our social fabric" is seen, by members of fashionable London clubs, in the spread of the "pipe plague" throughout England today. Civilians who were formerly too cultured to be seen in public smoking pipes are taking to their briars in increasing numbers, and the monocled disciples of Lord Chesterfield are deeply shocked.

"My word, old thing, I'd rather see brown boots and a frock coat than a silk hat and a bulldog briar."

This from the depths of a plush-covered arm-chair near the window of a Piccadilly club, voices the indignant opinion of the social elect of London.

For the suburban real estate dealer these are the balmy days of the capitalized year.

UNION NEWS.

Union, Apr. 19.—(Special)—Mrs. J. Gillmore and two little daughters of Payette are visiting at the home of Mrs. Gillmore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Williams.

A strong patriotic sentiment is everywhere to be seen. Flags are in evidence from most of the private homes, and all the business houses of the city.

News was received here Sunday of the death of Clifford Lamb, formerly of Union, but recently of Idaho. Death was a result of an operation for appendicitis, the patient never recovering consciousness after taking the anesthetic. The young man was well known here, and will be mourned by a large circle of friends and relatives. Funeral was held at the I. D. S. church Monday afternoon.

Miss Venus Thomas, a member of this year's class of Union high school, is in the Grande Ronde hospital, where she recently had an operation performed upon her ear. Dr. Bouvy is in charge of the patient and from last reports she was doing nicely.

ASTOUNDING REPORT FOR LA GRANDE.

The wife of a merchant had stomach trouble so bad she could eat nothing but toast, fruit and hot water. Everything else would sour and ferment. ONE SPOONFUL buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka benefited her INSTANTLY. Because Adler-i-ka flushes the ENTIRE alimentary tract it relieves ANY CASE constipation, sour stomach or gas and prevents appendicitis. It has QUICKEST action of anything we ever sold. Coins at Premium.

London, April 18.—(United Press)—Americans here are urging their friends who make occasional trips to the United States to bring back dimes, quarters and half dollars of the new design. The new coins are still at a premium in the American colony.

HOW TO RESPECT THE FLAG.

Whenever the National Anthem is played at any place where persons belonging to the military service are present, all officers and enlisted men not in formation shall stand at attention facing toward the music (except at retreat, when they shall face toward the flag). If in uniform, covered or uncovered, or in civilian clothes, uncovered, they shall salute at the first note of the anthem, retaining the position of salute until the last note of the anthem. If not in uniform and covered, they shall uncover at the first note of the anthem, holding the headress opposite the left shoulder and so remain until its close, except that in inclement weather the headress may be slightly raised.

The same rules apply when to the color or to the standard is sounded as when the National Anthem is played. When played by an Army band, the National Anthem shall be played through without repetition of any part not required to be repeated to make it complete.

The same marks of respect prescribed for observance during the playing of the National Anthem of the United States shall be shown toward the National Anthem of any other country when played upon official occasions.
