

KIRSCHBAUM CLOTHES

The DREADNOUGHT or the CANOE?

The dreadnought plows without a tremor through a storm which would mean shipwreck for a frail canoe.

What a tremendous moral in this comparison there is for us all!

Be it the purchase of an investment bond or a suit of clothes, put your faith in the institution which possesses the ballast, the even-keeled stability of the dreadnought. Invincible steel instead of fragile birch bark!

Behind the production of Kirschbaum Clothes, there is an institution with the strength, the size, the weathering power to hold true to its course in the face of a veritable hurricane of difficulties which have been raining upon the clothing world.

Quality unwavering and undeviating, today as always—whether you pay $15, $16.50, $20, $25 or up to $40.

A Man and His Colors

Every man has colors which become him best—which complement the color of his hair, eyes and complexion. He should follow these rules in the selection of his clothes:

Light hair, blue eyes, fair skin—navy blue; medium blue; any grey; black or black and white.

Light hair, blue, brown or grey eyes, florid complexion—warm deep brown, plain or in mixture; navy blue; black.

Black hair, black or brown eyes, dark skin—brown; warm grey; medium blue or navy; black or black and white.

Brown hair, brown, grey or blue eyes, fair skin—grey or dark brown; medium blue or navy; black or black and white.

VIVIAN MARTIN STARS IN "THE WAX MODEL"

"I am very glad that colds don't photograph," smiled the charming Pallas-Paramount star, Miss Vivian Martin as she sat in her dainty dressing room beside the huge stage at the Morosco studio. "If colds did photograph, I don't believe I would ever work again because, for the past three months life has been just one cold after another. Some colds come, and some colds go but mine goes on forever. The latest one—the one I was taking 'The Wax Model'. You see I was supposed to pose for a sculptor as the 'Awakening of Spring,' and some how or other Spring seems to always awake with her Winter clothes entirely gone, and just a few draperies adorning her. I wish some artist would have Spring awaken in a bathrobe or a nice warm kimono, but it seems that Spring's awakening is not accompanied with much of a wardrobe, so while I was posing there was plenty of room for me to catch cold—in fact, that was pretty nearly all I had to hide my shivering form behind.

"I don't know why it is, but these demons of scenario writers always write Arctic stuff where you run around in heavy mackinaws and furs, in the summer time—and for winter, they have beautiful stories laid in South Africa and the tropics where you are supposed to run around in very diaphanous costumes, and freeze to death. If they could just turn their brains around and fit the story to the season, how perfectly lovely it would be. The coldest day California had seen in twenty years, I had to run around in a thin ball gown and sit and fan by the hours, and really my poor teeth were chattering so that you could have heard them a block away. "I like my part in 'The Wax Model' and I am sure that you will too. Now I must go and be 'The Spirit of Romance.' This will be the bill at the Arcade Friday and Saturday.

Christ's Attitude.

Tacoma, Wash., April 20.—(United Press)—Jesus Christ wouldn't knuckle down to the Kaiser, declares the Rev. G. W. Meyer, of this city. This is what the Rev. Mr. Meyer has to say about Christ's attitude on the present war: "If Christ was the captain of an American liner and Kaiser Bill said to him, 'don't you dare sail your boat across that line; if you do, I will kill you,' he would sail the ship across that line in defiance of Kaiser Bill, if it were the right and true thing to do. His disciples warned Him not to go to Jerusalem. He went. He would lose His life if He went. He did not stay away and keep the peace. He went to Jerusalem and was crucified, although He knew before He went that He would be. Yet it was His duty and He did not shirk it, although by so doing He started the greatest conflict the world has ever known—the battle between right and wrong."
