fire-eating braggadocio, but he meets his match in Sally and promptly falls in love with her. Sally rejects him and returns to Pump Lane, Lord Romsey following her disguised as a blacksmith. Sally is also pursued by the Duke of Chatto, who attempts to kidnap her.

How she is saved, how Pump Lane is freed from the Duke of Chatto's heavy taxation and how Lord Romsey finally wins the heart of the young actress makes a story unusual in its theme and rapid in its action.

Two of the unusual scenes are thrilling fights; one between Jack Dean and Billy Elmer, and the other between Jack Dean and Billy Elmer and the Duke of Chatto's retinue of servants. During the taking of the pictures this fight became so strenuous that one man was thrown through a window and severely injured.

Others prominent in the cast are Horace B. Carpenter, Walter Long, Paul Wiegel, Eugene Pallette, Florence Smythe and others.

Rheumatic Pains Relieved.

"I have used Chamberlain's Liniment for pains in the chest and lameness of the shoulders due to rheumatism, and am pleased to say that it has never failed to give me prompt relief," writes Mrs. S. N. Finch, Bavin, N. Y.—Adv.

ARCADE

GIRLS! GIRLS! GIRLS!

Snappy Girl Show Coming to Arcade Theatre.

When the "Boston Show Girls" present "A Trip Around the World" at the Arcade Theatre Saturday and Sunday, April 28 and 29, local theatre goers will have the opportunity of seeing a happy, snappy laughable musical comedy that has pleased thousands of theatre goers this season. The Beauty Chorus are given many opportunities to display elegant costumes, which are designed and made for the "Boston Show Girls" for their trip around the world.

Boston Show Girls, who are in reality the society girls of the town are presenting an entertainment for charity and at the close of their entertainment, they are invited to take a trip around the world, which they accept and the next scene shows the deck of a big ocean liner and their many stops at the different ports of the world. This gives the company many changes of costumes and introduces songs and picture numbers of every nationality. On their return to America they receive a most hearty welcome and the Grand Finale, is the most unique ever offered in musical comedy productions. There will be many snuffire vaudeville numbers introduced during the action of the play, together with the chorus numbers and all in all the evening will be one of pleasure and enjoyment. Mr. William Nixon and Billy Rafferty are the two comedians with the company, while Misses Francis Hoyle, Arline McDonagh and Margurite Becker are the three principal women.

Fannie Ward Today Only.

Fannie Ward, the celebrated photodramatic star who recently scored such a triumph in the Lasky-Paramount pictures, "The Years of the Locust" and "Betty to the Rescue" will be seen at the Arcade today only in "The Winning of Sally Temple" a thrilling comedy drama taken from Rugert Sargent Holland's famous novel, "The Heart of Sally Temple" and prepared for the screen especially for Miss Ward by Harvey F. Thew. Lord Romsey, the guardian, is a
