TWO STARS TO WRESTLE TOMORROW

JOHN BERG AND JACK O'NEILL WILL CONTEST FOR HONORS AT THE ARCADE THEATRE.

Tomorrow evening at the Arcade theatre will be one of the best wrestling matches that has ever been staged in this city: John Berg, former 175 pounds Pacific Coast champion and Jack O'Neill, of La Grande, who one month ago in this city wrestled away the championship from him.

So clever are both men and so evenly matched that the return match was arranged in response to a general demand from the fans. The latter gave as their reason for asking the return match that the men were both so evenly matched as to science, strength, speed and aggressiveness that there would be no question that the match would be fast from start to finish.

O'Neill stands ready and willing to meet any good wrestler of his weight. He has been training carefully and will be in good condition.

O'Neill's reputation as a wrestler is beyond reproach. He is conscientious, he is proud of his ability and would much prefer to lose than not to win a contest on his merits. He came to La Grande expecting to locate here permanently. He had no idea of going on the mat again. The game was dead here up to the time the Strong Man Johnson invited someone to stay with him fifteen minutes. Knowing O'Neill's ability in the past Mr. C. D. Emahiser, well known as a lover of clean sport, prevailed upon him to tackle the Swede, the rest is history—quite by accident wrestling was revived in La Grande.

Here is a copy of the articles of agreement between the two men:

Agreement to Wrestle.

La Grande, Ore., April 11, 1917.—We the undersigned hereby agree to wrestle a finish Catch as Catch Can wrestling match for a purse of $200 at the Arcade theatre, La Grande, Oregon on the night of April 25, 1917. Winner take all.

Conditions: We agree to wrestle a clean, sportsmanlike contest under professional catch as catch can rules. Two straight falls or two falls in three, will decide the match. Should both men be on their feet at the end of two hours, to which this match is limited we agree to abide by a referee's decision to be awarded on versatility and aggressiveness. We agree to select a competent referee at least two days before date of match.

We each agree to post $50 with the United States National bank of La Grande, Ore., which we further agree to forfeit if for any reason either of us are unable to appear for the match on above date.

(Signed)

JOHN BERG.

HOW TO RESPECT THE FLAG.

Whenever the National Anthem is played at any place when persons belonging to the military service are present, all officers and enlisted men not in formation shall stand at attention facing toward the music (except at retreat, when they shall face toward the flag). If in uniform, covered or uncovered, or in civilian clothes, uncovered, they shall salute at the first note of the anthem, retaining the position of salute until the last note of the anthem. If not in uniform and covered, they shall uncover at the first note of the anthem, holding the headdress opposite the left shoulder and so remain until its close, except that in inclement weather the headdress may be slightly raised.

The same rules apply when to the color or to the standard is sounded as when the National Anthem is played.

When played by an Army band, the National Anthem shall be played through without repetition of any part not required to be repeated to make it complete.

The same marks of respect prescribed for observance during the playing of the National Anthem of the United States shall be shown toward the National Anthem of any other country when played upon official occasions.
