SummerVille News

Summerville, Ore., Apr. 23.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Starr of this place, and Miss Nellie Pool of Dry creek, attended the Teachers' institute at Elgin last Saturday. They report a good attendance and able discussions. We are sorry to note that our estimable superintendent, Mrs. A. E. Ivanhoe, still has to carry her arm in a sling.
 Mrs. Wagoner and daughters, Lillian and Irene, have moved back to the farm.
 Those having cars hope to soon be able to use them and some are dragging the roads in order to get them in proper condition.
 Some stock has been taken to the mountains, hay becoming too scarce with a number of farmers.
 Geo. Hardy has done a little plowing on the Emmerson place.

 Maud McRae is still on the sick list. Becker brothers, Gene and Fred, have butchered a number of calves lately.
 Miss Mary Young, who has been quite ill, is improving in health.
 The home of Johnnie Murchison has been made brighter by the arrival of a very new son.
 Mrs. Frizzell is visiting at the home of her daughter Mrs. Billy Bay.
 Mr. Stringham, musical instructor of Imbler, is giving marked satisfaction among his patrons here.
 Roads are now almost entirely free from snow within a radius of four miles from this place.
 Mrs. Whitcomb, who is staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Fisher at present, returned from a visit with relatives and friends in Elgin a short time ago.
 Mrs. C. L. McKinnis, who underwent an operation a few weeks since, has returned home and is getting along nicely.

 Mrs. Goodwin has moved into the large house just east of Mr. Needham's.
 Summerville has responded like a true patriot to her country's call for boys.
 The long deferred bazaar and supper by the Ladies' Aid will be at their service April 28. Yes, the fish pond too.
Some Good Advice.
 Don't think too much of your own methods. Watch other people's ways and learn from them." This is good advice, especially when bilious or constipated. You will find many people who use Chamberlain's Tablets for these ailments with the best results, and will do well to follow their example.—Adv.

TONIGHT IS THE O'NEIL VS. BERG MATCH

Two Famous Grapplers Will Contest at Arcade Theatre—Several Clever Preliminaries Arranged.

John Berg, who will meet Jack O'Neill in a finish wrestling match at the Arcade theatre tonight, is here and certainly looks like he will be able to give a good account of himself. He says he is in the pink of condition and will offer no excuse if he loses this match.
 O'Neill has trained faithfully for the contest and promises to keep the championship in La Grande. The preliminaries are attracting much attention and should be very interesting. Al Bridges, the big boilermaker who was booked to wrestle Pat Foley for the local amateur heavyweight title, will appear against Soldier Plant in an exhibition glove contest. Mr. Foley is unable to wrestle owing to an attack of "pets" of the affectionate variety and Mr. Plant of Company M has kindly consented to give an exhibition of the manly art.
 The Lottes-Peare affair will be good, naturally there is considerable difference of opinion as to the superiority of these two grapplers and it has been decided to make this an Irish-German contest instead of catch as catch can.

 Roberts and Spencer, local high school boys will wrestle. A match between these young men is always interesting as they are both aggressive, evenly matched and mix it from the gong.
 The pictures will start at the usual time and the wrestling preliminaries will begin at 8:30.
 Ladies are especially invited. The show will be a clean high-class athletic entertainment.
 Jack O'Neill, the local wrestler who will defend his claim to the championship of the Northwest at 175 pounds against John Berg tonight at the Arcade theatre, is a native of Michigan and began his wrestling career as a Cornish wrestler when 16 years old and within the year he won the third prize in competition with the best men in Northern Michigan.
 A few years later he located in Chicago and associated himself with the Y. M. C. A. of that city where he learned "Catch as Catch Can" style wrestling under Prof. Smith, who was instructor of that institution at that time.
 His first professional match was in Grand Forks where he won from Fred Fair, of Rolla, North Dakota. Soon after he challenged D. A. McMillan at that time, all style world's wrestling champion. McMillan accepted they met in Minneapolis and O'Neill won two straight falls, catch as catch can style wrestling.
 Later he met and defeated Chas. Moth, of Pittsburg, soon after he won the northwest championship and a gold medal at Missoula, Mont., in a tournament defeating, among others, Prof. Lewis, recognized at that time as one of the best heavy weights in the game.
 A little later he defended his claim of northwest champion against all comers at Spokane taking first money and a gold medal.
 He wrestled in Canada meeting and defeating the best men in his class over there. Won from Jack Carkeek and Rowett in the copper region in northern Michigan, beating West, Pevey Jack, Donar and others.
 He got a draw with Dan McLeod who held the world's championship at that time. He won over Farmer Burns, Burns getting the first fall in about an hour, O'Neill taking the second and third.
 He soon after met Jack Aleen in Great Falls, Mont., requiring two hours to get the two falls. He met Haila Dali the 300 pound Turk in Seattle in a handicap match in which he has thrown in an hour. The Turk returned to Constantinople after touring this country without losing a fall.
 Two years ago O'Neill wrestled Bob Peterson, then champion heavyweight wrestler of Alaska, in the armory at Albany, Ore., winning two falls in ten minutes. He met I. A. Johnson, of St. Paul, Minn., champion heavyweight strong man and wrestler at the Arcade theatre, this city, beating the big man twice in 28 minutes. He defeated John Berg in their match March 23 by taking two falls in three. He is in fine condition and expects to retain his claim to the light heavyweight championship of the northwest in his return match with Berg tonight.

Heed the Warning Shiver

There would be little danger from colds if only the first warnings were heeded and something taken to stop the attacks before they have a chance to develop.

The shiver, sneeze and disagreeable dryness in the throat mean that you may be very ill before you are through with it. A few doses of will prevent any serious results from the attack. They drive out the cold completely in a few hours. We guarantee them—money back if they fail. Price 25c.
