Satisfaction

It's sewed into every garment we sell. No matter what the price may be, you're assured of one thing—your money is always ready if you are not satisfied.

It should be keen satisfaction for you to know. You take no chances when you purchase anything from us. In buying clothes, do not mistake cheapness for economy—the two do not go together—especially in these days of adulterated fabrics.

Quality at the right price is real economy and you get it here 100 per cent proof in the famous CAPPS' 100 PER CENT PURE WOOL CLOTHES $18 to $27.50. Made from the raw wool to the finished garment in one factory with no middleman's profit added.

PICKED UP BY THE STROLLER

Although I wasn't a member of the Stockmen's convention and didn't have a ticket, I "horned in" at the banquet Wednesday night. I was just a little bit frightened too, but I tacked on to Bob Stanfield, and just as we went by the door man, I said, "Well, Bob, my loss won't run more than six or seven percent," and Bob said, "Well, you always were a lucky dog." And the gate-man forgot to ask for my ticket. If he had, I'd said I'd left it in my other clothes—but that wouldn't have been very good for a stockman either. At any rate I got in, and I never in my life ate such a dinner. Believe me there was plenty. I ate more ham, more turkey, more biscuits, drank more coffee than I have for some time; when the cake came on and the ice cream, it was a problem in geometry to find room for it. I sat there in comfort; talked stock to the man next to me; watched those lovely ladies working and waiting on the table, and I was envious of those lucky men who are their husbands. Being an old bachelor I wondered if they got food like that at home every day, and whether the brutes appreciated it. And then came the most stirring event of all: A beautiful lady sang "The Star-Spangled Banner," and she sang
