Society

Another busy week in the social world ended. Most of the entertainment being very informal owing to the war cloud, but nevertheless the first part of the week was taken up by the Stockmen's convention and was a great success.

On Thursday afternoon the Woman's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church were entertained at the home of Mrs. J. C. Henry on Fourth street. Mesdames Henry, Kiddle and Bidwell were the hostesses. A very interesting program on home missions was given and after the regular business session was brought to a close, a miscellaneous shower was given Mrs. W. A. Winters, president of the auxiliary, it being her birthday anniversary. The Queen Esther society, of which Mrs. Winters is supervisor, was also well represented and who assisted with the serving of the refreshments. Those present were Mesdames Bidwell, Beck, Benglesdorf, Benham, Edwards, Fritts,

Fines, Bolton, Green, F. Smith, Reed, Pierson, Kiddle, Leffel, Wattenberg, Shores, Kammerer, Grandy, Hanford, Richardson, Fitzgerald, McKinnis, McCormack, Vinache, Graham, Richey, Nibarger, Henry, C. A. Smith, Winters, Payton, Knowles, Davis, Choate, Chattin, Culp, Guye, Hohn, McDonald, R. H. Smith, Lyle and the Misses Miriam Wheatley, Phyllis Magers, Violet Rush, Viola Benham, Essie Fitzgerald, Mabel Tutt, Josephine Bradley, Avis Vinacke, Eunice Bolton, Fay McKinnis, Stella Ericson, Gladys Winters, Marguerite Winters, Jewell Tosier and Frances Pierson.
