Y. M. C. A. League to Drill.

The next drill of the Y. M. C. A. Security league will be held tomorrow evening in the gymnasium. It is expected that the attendance will be much larger than any drill that has been held before. The members are rounding in shape in fine form and since the last drill two of the members have enlisted in the marines. It is a great opportunity for the young man to become proficient in drills, so that when the call comes, he will find that it will not be necessary for him to become a rookie. The Y. M. C. A. extends the invitation to non-members to join the league; the drill will be in charge of members from Company M.

When in Portland you will find The Observer on sale at the Oregon Hotel news stand and Imperial Hotel.
