ARCADE

Theodore Roberts at Arcade.

Theodore Roberts, the world's famous character actor, and Lasky star, will be seen at the Arcade today and tomorrow in the Lasky-Paramount production "The American Consul," a thrilling political comedy drama written especially for him by the noted author Paul West and prepared for the screen by Harvey Thew and Thomas Geraghty.

Mr. Roberts always makes his characters distinctive, no matter what role he portrays, whether a Russian Grand Duke or a Bowery drunkard. His wonderful art of make-up always makes his part, no matter how insignificant, stand out clear and distinct.

In "The American Consul," Mr. Roberts is seen as a small town patriot who is called upon by a local politician to make a political address. Feeling that his talk saved the entire nation from destruction, the patriot goes to Washington to answer his country's call, but his country does not call until a scheming senator, to get rid of him, has him appointed as the American Consul to a small South American republic.

How the country lawyer finally develops into a real man and saves the dignity of his country and the lives of his friends, is brought about in an unusual and dramatic manner.

The Lasky company has given Mr. Roberts an excellent supporting cast which includes Maude Fealy, Tom Forman, Raymond Hatton, Charles West, Ernest Joy and others. The production was made for the Lasky company by Rollin Sturgeon and is of unusual lavishness.

Clear Away the Waste.

Bowel regularity is the secret of good health, bright eyes, clear complexion, and Dr. King's New Life Pills are a mild and gentle laxative that regulates the bowels and relieves the congested intestines by removing the accumulated wastes without griping. Take a pill before retiring and that heavy head, that dull spring fever feeling disappears. Get Dr. King's New Life Pill at your druggist, 25c.—Adv.

OUR HONOR GUARD GIRLS.

BY JAMES BARTON ADAMS.

The bright girls of the Honor Guard are worthy far more praise than any jingle-writing bard can hand them in his lays. They love the country of their birth because each loyal lass well knows no country on the earth is in the U. S. class. The privilege they are denied of handling deadly guns and doing battle side by side with Uncle Sammy's sons, else they would don the brown khaki in patriotic pride and long to sail across the sea and face the battle tide, but there is other work to do of priceless benefit to our great cause, and maidens true to it will do their bit. They seriously undertake their duties in the Guard, to labor for the country's sake, be labor light or hard, and as a sideline to their work with winning smiles can go upon the trails of lads who shirk the chance to face the foe. Each winsome maid can play a hand as charming hypnotist, can buttonhole young fellows and induce them to enlist, and turn the frigid marble heart to cravens who may lag behind and fail to do their part defending our old flag, and when the cruel war is o'er, when peace shall come at last, and hushed shall be the cannons' roar and stilled the battle blast, and flushed with victory, our braves shall reach their homes again from far across the ocean waves, their banner free from stain, no ones will flash them brighter smiles, extend more welcome hands, than girls who labored for them while they fought in distant lands the while the shirkers in disgrace with sadly drooping eye will read in each fair maiden's face: "No slackers need apply."—The Oregonian.

Best Remedy for Whooping Cough.

"Last winter when my little boy had the whooping cough I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," writes Mrs. J. B. Roberts, East St. Louis, Ill. "It kept his cough loose and relieved him of those dreadful coughing spells. It is the only cough medicine I keep in the house because I have the most confidence in it." This remedy is also good for colds and croup.—Adv.
