Notice.

All parties burning rubbish outside the fire limits will not be required to have a fire permit until June 1, 1917. C. L. MACKEY, Fire Chief.

Dainty Bed Covers.

Suggestive of luxury is a cover for a day bed. The cover is fashioned of old rose taffeta quilted in various designs. In a shield frame formed by stitchery is embroidered the owner's monogram in various shades of pink.

A similar cover might be made for the bed, for it is evident that the brilliantly colored coverlet is the one of the moment, care being taken that the color matches or harmonizes with the general color scheme of the room.

Don't throw away the tops of the celery. Wash them thoroughly, then dry them in an oven and keep in a tightly closed jar. You will find it an excellent substitute for the fresh celery as a flavoring for soups or stews.

GUNDERSON TO WRESTLE CHRISTENSEN

SPOKANE MAN WILL TACKLE THE BIG DANE-GUNDERSON HAS MANY VICTORIES TO HIS CREDIT

Fred Gunderson, of Spokane, Wash., and Harold Christensen, of Copenhagen, Denmark, will wrestle a finish match at the Arcade Theatre in this city May 17.

Gunderson formerly lived at Bellingham, Wash., where he was known as "The Bellingham Strong Boy", where he also began his career as a wrestler. Later he located in Spokane, where he acted as wrestling instructor at the Y. M. C. A. for a year. He then located in St. Maries, Ida., where he engaged in eighteen wrestling matches with the best heavy-weight talent to be secured, winning a large majority of the contests.

Among handicap matches in which he secured decisions were: Jack Carkeek, ex-champion heavy-weight of the world; Stanislas Zbysko, the terrible Turk; Joe Carroll, heavy-weight sparring partner of Gotch; Dan McLeod, ex-heavyweight champion of America.

A few of the straight matches in which he took part of which he won a majority:

Nick Spenjok, champion Greco-Roman wrestler; Sam McMillin, champion strong man of the United States; Chris Pierson, champion heavyweight wrestler of northwest; Jack Allen, the terrible Swede; John Nelson, Pacific coast champion of the navy; Nick Lurick, John Miller, War Eagle, Fred Latterlee, Tom Grant, Joe Glaske, Strangler Smith, Jack Larney, Jack Root and many others.

Gunderson is a very strong man, naturally very rugged, powerfully built, always in pretty good condition as he takes the very best care of himself. The history of his past matches prove he is very aggressive, has remarkable endurance and his determination to win and thorough knowledge of the game makes him a formidable opponent for any heavy-weight. Despite the fact that he weighs 192 pounds he is remarkably fast on his feet and quick to recognize an opening and his match with Christensen should delight all lovers of the wrestling game.

Harold Christensen is a Dane and has only been in the United States 19 months, in that time he has wrestled 60 matches. He weighs 190 pounds. This will be his first appearance in Oregon.

Christiansen Beats Visser.

C. D. Emahiser today received the following telegram from Dr. Harold Dresser, a prominent physician of Boise: "Before a large and appreciative audience tonight Christiansen showed his superiority over Pete Vissey, the intermountain champion by winning the last two falls of their wrestling match with a body scissors and half Nelson. The Dane was the

Society

Perhaps the most important and enjoyable affair of the week was the Military ball given in honor of Company M at Rex hall Thursday night.

Guests commenced to arrive at an early hour, and by the time of the grand march at 10 o'clock, the hall was well filled. The walls were prettily decorated with American flags, and evergreens graced the corners. In one side of the building was an exceedingly interesting exhibit of all of the soldier's paraphernalia, gun, bayonet, cartridges, clothing, shoes, hat, etc., army biscuits, tentpoles, etc. All evening one of the men was stationed at this post and willingly explained the use of the weapons and the camp outfit.

At 10 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Pat Foley led the grand march, which ended in dancing, after which the patronesses: Mesdames Fred B. Currey, Pat Foley, H. E. Coolidge, Jay Van Buren, T. J. Scroggin, R. E. L. Holt, M. K. Hall, Jas. Corbett, A. L. Richardson, J. J. Carr, Frank Lilly, Herman Siegrist, Clarke Leiter, Fred Meyers, Lot Snodgrass, E. E. Kirtley and G. L. Larison formed their receiving line, and all of the members of Company M were presented to them by Captain Neer and Lieutenants Allen and Banta.

Dancing then was enjoyed the rest of the evening; the music kept on getting more and more lively, waltzes gave way to one-steps and two-steps, and the fox-trot arrived on the scene about 11 o'clock.

The party was voted a huge success, especially by the young people of La Grande.

Mrs. E. P. Mossman, long a resident of Portland but now living in La Grande, is spending a few weeks with friends in this city. She is being extensively entertained, one of the latest affairs having been given yesterday by Mrs. J. S. Bradley, who entertained with tea for Mrs. Mossman at her Portland heights home.-Portland Journal.

One of the most important social events of the week was the marriage of Miss Louise Douglas and J. L. Robertson, which was solemnized in the Presbyterian church Sunday evening at 9 o'clock. The Reverend G. L. Clark read the ring service and only the immediate friends and relatives were present. Miss Marie Love sang a solo before the party entered the church and Miss Lelia Deborah Smith played Mendelssohn's wedding march. Miss Douglas is the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. F. Douglas of this city and Mr. Robertson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson, a prominent rancher of the Grande Ronde valley. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will make their home in La Grande.

A large number of women attended the 500 club at the home of Mrs. W. H. Bohnenkamp Thursday afternoon. Mrs. H. C. Grady winning the honors. It was unanimously voted to dispense with the lunch until September and the expense money will be given by the hostesses to the Red Cross fund. On September 1 the half of the club having low score will entertain the winning half at a 6 o'clock supper to which the husbands will also be invited. The ladies reported that they were all raising gardens and chickens and as far as possible will use food from these sources for the supper.

Henry F. Furgason and Miss Susie Hartman were married in the Presbyterian Manse by the Rev. G. L. Clark, Saturday night at 8:30.

A charming affair of the week was the Kaffee Klatch luncheon which Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Conkey gave at the home of Mrs. Grace Molitor Friday evening. Bridge was played, the ladies' prize going to Mrs. P. S. Robinson. Dr. M. K. Hall won the gentlemen's prize. The rooms were beautifully-decorated with pink carnations.

Chapter I, P. E. O., met with Mrs. G. L. Clark Friday afternoon for a short business session. It was decided to give the rest of the year in working for the benefit of the Red Cross society.

Mrs. W. Spencer entertained the F. A. F. club at her home Friday afternoon. Mrs. Lee Bellingher won high score. Mrs. T. W. King second and a special prize was also awarded to Mrs. Bellingher, which was offered by the husband of one of the members to the lady having the highest score at the end of the four successive games.

NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB NOTES.

The last meeting of the year of the dramatic section of the club was held April 24. A reading of the play, "Lady Windemere's Fan," by Oscar Wilde was given by Mrs. A. T. Hill, whose interpretation was very pleasing. Mrs. W. H. Reuter gave a short sketch of the author's life and a criticism of his plays. Following the program plans for the next year were discussed. Mrs. Norman Frees was elected leader, and a committee consisting of Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn, Miss Anson and Miss Pickens was appointed to make out a program for the following year.

The Neighborhood club held an important business meeting on Tuesday, May 1. Several committees reported on their work and discussions followed. Mrs. Fred Kiddle, chairman of the Breakfast committee reported that nearly $64 had been collected which goes to the Red Cross. Mrs. E. T. Andrews gave a short concise outline of the work to be done by the Red Cross. Mrs. McKennon, a former member of the club extended greetings from Clarksville, Ark., and gave an interesting talk of the work of two clubs, a civic and a study club, of which she is a member. She expressed her delight at the growth of the Neighborhood club and cordially extended an invitation to the delegate sent to the General Federation at Hot Springs, Ark., in 1918 to look her up at that time.

The Neighborhood club had a very enjoyable program Friday afternoon. Mrs. T. J. Scroggin in a clear rich voice sang two well chosen selections, "Wake Up" and "In May Time." Mrs.

Ray Logan, the president, spoke on "Baby Week" and then presented Miss Milam of the Oregon Agricultural college to the ladies. Miss Milam gave a short instructive talk on the subject "Food for Children," and she recommended reading the bulletins sent out by the government on this subject, she also recommended very highly the book "Feeding the Family" by Mary Forbes Rose. She urged all women to put forth more effort to help decrease infant mortality. Mrs. R. J. Green rendered a piano selection, a negro dance by Scott, which was greatly enjoyed. After the program, Mrs. J. K. Wright assisted by a committee served light refreshments to ladies.

Miss Tressie Castle and Harvey Patton, both prominent young people of La Grande were married in their home Wednesday evening by the Rev. Chas. Edwards. Only immediate relatives and friends were present.

The Queen Esther society of the Methodist Episcopal church was hostesses to the boys of Company M Thursday night at the church. About 150 young people were present. A large artificial campfire was made and the evening was spent in games and music.

Mrs. G. M. Byrkit and Miss Sue Wilson are registered at the Multnomah Hotel, Portland.

Of Interest To Women

Household Hints.

To renew old black lace lay the lace in black coffee to which you have added a little black ink. When ready to iron place it between black goods. Iron on wrong side while still wet.

To wash pillow feathers, remove feathers from ticking, place in suds and wash, using the washboard as for clothes. Squeeze out water between hands and put in rinse water. Wring through wringer out of the rinse water. Spread on a sheet on the floor, stirring occasionally. When the feathers are dry they will be as soft and fluffy as when new.

To remove wall paper brush over with alum water, using an ordinary kalsomine brush. Let dry and paper will come off without any trouble. Extra warmth can be felt cold night if the mattress top is completely lined with a layer after layer of newspapers. Even if they are laid plentifully over the spring, under the mattress, they keep out untold draughts in an unheated room.

When your wicker furniture needs cleaning make a pailful of warm soap-suds and add thereto about three tablespoonfuls of liquid ammonia. Scrub the wicker well with a stiff brush and rinse with clear, warm water. Place in the open air to dry.

To Mend Dimity Spread.

If you have a nice crochet or dimity spread that is wearing thin and breaking in many places do not try to darn with pieces underneath but get a soft, white lining, put it in a quilting frame, stretch the spread over, quilt it by the woven designs and it will look well and last as long again.-Buffalo News.

The next time you want to bake potatoes try this method: Wash as many potatoes as are required and remove a slice from each end. While still damp wrap the potatoes in oiled paper and the ends together. The potatoes should be placed in a moderate oven, and the paper wrappings should not be removed until ready to serve. You will find that there will be no hard outer crust, no matter how long the potatoes have been in the oven.
