In Extraordinary Problems
The business man is used to meeting ordinary problems. It is when unusual conditions arise that he feels the need of outside advice. Our Officers are naturally in a position to accumulate a fund of business and financial data which is not so readily available to the average business man. This information is freely at the command of the business interests of this community.

Let us print your farm sale bills.

in La Grande Monday.
J. M. Silver of Troy was transacting business in Wallowa Tuesday.
Dick Galloway returned Saturday from a business trip to the Walla Walla valley points.
Link McGill, of Lostine was a Wallowa business visitor yesterday, driving down in his car.
Paul Bruce left for Enterprise Sunday after spending a week with friends and relatives here.
Wm. Lydle was called to Walla Walla Monday on account of the illness of his brother's wife.
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sannar and son, Lester, returned to Enterprise on Sunday after spending a few days in Wallowa.
John Bratton, who was taken to the Wallowa hospital last Friday night, with a slight attack of appendicitis, is out again and will not have to undergo an operation at this time at least.
C. K. Bue and wife, who have been residents of Wallowa for the past several years move to Enterprise last Saturday. They expect to live in the county seat town for the summer at least.
Orell Poole left Tuesday for Vancouver Barracks. Orell is one of our boys who enlisted to serve his country in this war. He goes in the wireless division of which he has had considerable experience.
J. N. Howe of Eugene came in on Wednesday's train for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Jasper Bogue. Mr. Howe is a painter and paper hanger by trade and may conclude to locate in our city.
John Goebel, Sr., was called to The Dalles Sunday on telephone communications informing him that his brother Frank was seriously ill. Word came in Wednesday that Mr. Goebel was much better and that an operation may not be necessary.

The Sun man received a card from Ralf Couch, one of our volunteer boys now at Vancouver Barracks in which he says that they are all taking to soldier life fine; that they have not commenced to be drilled yet, but will be as soon as they are issued army clothing, when they will be sent to Presidio of California at San Francisco.
L. Couch and D. G. Hollifield have recently received from Tillamook county a thoroughbred registered Red Poll bull one year old, weight 850. This breed is something new for this country but is undoubtedly suited to the needs of this country as a beef and dairy breed.
Road to Happiness.
Be amiable, cheerful and good natured and you are much more likely to be happy. You will find this difficult, if not impossible, however, when you are constantly troubled with constipation. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and get rid of that and it will be easy. These tablets not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.—Adv.
JACK O'NEILL WILL WRESTLE IN BAKER.
Harry Emele, who is said to be able to handle anything near his size in Baker county, has been booked to wrestle with Jack O'Neill of La Grande in the Moose hall in Baker on Friday evening, May 11, according to Tom Jennings, a Baker promoter.

The bout will be under the auspices of the L. O. O. M., and has been arranged through the efforts of Mr. Jennings and "Daddy" Burt, Moose organizer.
Worms Handicap Your Child.
Worms drain the strength and vitality of children, making them dull and listless. Their power to resist more serious diseases is reduced and energy and interest in play is lacking. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a mildly laxative remedy in candy tablet form that children like to take. It kills and removes the worms and lets your child grow strong and healthy like other children. Don't let your child be dragged down by worms. Full directions on the box. At your druggists, 25c.—Adv.
