the coffee crop by manufacturing by-products from the coffee berry husk. One of the by-products—manita—properly combined with nitrogen, makes an explosive of about the same power as dynamite or fulminate of mercury, and markets at about $10 per kilogram. The average coffee crop of the state of Sao Paulo, Brazil is ten million sacks of 132 pounds each, representing a value of more than $80,000,000. This value is in coffee without the by-products. Dr. Pedro Baptista de Andrade, the chemist, already has begun manufacturing the by-products, which he discovered. He proposed to produce 30,000,000 liters of alcohol, 360,000 kilograms of manita and 36,000 kilograms of caffeine. Caffeine is a drug commanding a price of about 10 cents a gram. Alcohol is sold here at about 12 cents a liter. Dr. Andrade's process is to treat by distillation processes the coffee berry husk, which heretofore has been discarded as useless. Because of the war-made demand for explosives and alcohol, the new industry is expected to jump quickly into prosperity.
