

Keep Sweet

Persons who suffer from excessive perspiration often find themselves humiliated by the odor which it produces. This may easily be avoided through the use of

O-DO-RA

Neutralizes all odors and preserves the after-bath freshness of the body. It does not interfere with natural processes.

Use it regularly during the warm season

Union News Items

Union, Oregon, May 10.—Mrs. Dora B. Schilke, worthy grand matron, order of the Eastern Star, paid an official visit to Grande Ronde Valley Chapter last night. The afternoon was spent in instructing the officers, and in the evening the ritualistic work was exemplified, followed by a banquet. Mrs. Schilke was accompanied by Mrs. Emma Kiddle, worthy grande electa, of Island City. The Chapter presented Mrs. Schilke with a handsome cut glass dish, and Mrs. Kiddle with a beautiful bouquet of flowers.

Miss Etta Woodell of La Grande arrived in the city this week from Medical Springs where she has been teaching. During her term a fine new school building was constructed, which is to be used later on as a community high school. The building is modern in every way, and the people of the district are to be congratulated.

Catherine creek is an angry torrent at present, and threatens to overflow in a few days if the extreme heat of today continues.

Eleanor Hall and Merton Davis arrived home from Corvallis today. Merton expects to take up his duties on the Davis ranch about six miles west of North Powder. All of the college fraternity houses have been closed, the boys going either to the front or back to the farm.

Mr. S. E. Miller is the proud owner of a splendid new seven-passenger Studebaker Sedan car purchased through the Bideler agency here. It is the only car of its kind in the city.
