Y. M. C. A. Boys Climb Peak. Four boys of the Junior department of the Y. M. C. A. with General Secretary King climbed to the top of Rooster Peak early this morning and raised "Old Glory" to the top of a 35 foot flag pole. The flag, which is three feet by five feet now floats from the highest point in this vicinity. It was thought that a flag of that size could be seen very easily, but the distance makes it look rather small and it is the intention of the boys to replace the flag with one much larger. A person with a glass can distinguish

Madame Gadski Retires. New York, May 12.—(Special)—Madame Johanna Gadski, the opera singer, wife of Captain Hans Taucher, agent of the Krupps in the United States, who returned to Germany in Count Von Bernstorff's party, announced last night that she had withdrawn from the present from the Metropolitan stage. The action was prompted, she said, by "unjust attacks" against her on the ground that she was anti-American.

To Restrict Liquor. Stockholm, May 12, via London.—Sweden has taken a further step in the restriction of the sale of alcoholic beverages. Under a law adopted by the riksdag, effective January 1, 1919, the present system of selling distilled liquors is extended to cover wine and beer. This means that every consumer will have to be equipped with a pass-book in which his purchases will be entered. Private saloons will also be abolished and all private trade in beer and wine and the importation of wine by individuals are forbidden.
