Star Gazing.

Star-gazing may not be a money-making occupation, but it doesn't cost as much as a poor poker hand.

No merchant advertises just "for a showing." When a merchant uses valuable advertising space it means that he has something to say to you.—Adv 4-9, 16, 23, 30 tf.

Cottage Cheese Vs. Pork Chops

Washington, May 16.—(United Press)—Economy hint;—eat 12 cents worth of cottage cheese and you'll get more protein than is contained in a pound and a half of pork chops, says the United States department of agriculture today. A pound of such cheese daily, the department declares, will supply all the protein required by an ordinary man working indoors.

SET OUT ON "A LITTLE JOURNEY" now and then—a trip to see some advertised real estate, or an advertised apartment. You will not waste any time. The first journey may not yield profits—but with a little persistence you will find what you seek, and that is always worth while.—Adv. 4-14, 16, 23, 30cf.

ARCADE

H. B. Warner and Dorothy Dalton at Arcade Tonight.

H. B. Warner, in "The Vagabond Prince," the new Triangle-Kay Bee feature, has just in a few special showings, been hailed by the leading critics of the photoplay in America as one of the best screen attractions of the season. This conclusion has been reached unanimously because the attraction is composed of some of the finest histrionic work available and of an excellent story, full of heart-thrills and stirring action.

H. B. Warner has been long established on the speaking stage, where his characterization of the name part in "Alias Jimmy Valentine" ranks with the best delineations in that field. Dorothy Dalton, who has the leading feminine role in "The Vagabond Prince," has lately been elevated to stardom herself—she is the star of "The Jungle Child"—and the manner in which she has acquitted herself here has won emphatic praise.

Charles K. French, who plays the gang boss in "The Vagabond Prince," is one of the most noted character actors in the film ranks, and has appeared in "The Iron Strain," "The Coward" and "The Phantom," with Frank Keenan; "The Disciple," "The Aryan" and "The Patriot," with W. S. Hart, and in "Shell 43," also with H. B. Warner. There is represented in the cast another great character actor, J. Frank Burke, a player whose record both on the speaking stage and the screen has been long and distinguished.

Road to Happiness.

Be amiable, cheerful and good natured and you are much more likely to be happy. You will find this difficult, if not impossible, however, when you are constantly troubled with constipation. Take Chamberlain's Tablets and get rid of that and it will be easy. These tablets not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.—Adv.

After all, there are only three things that are really worth while: To do good, to be good, and always to smile.

COLONIAL

The Colonial has engaged for three days Princess Wahletka, a Cherokee Indian mind reader. The Princess will give a wonderful demonstration at each performance, and will also give a matinee to ladies only on Friday.

If you have any troubles, heartaches, information about friends or any questions, Wahletka will help you.

Come and see this marvelous demonstration that is the talk of the coast, you'll enjoy the show.

Worms Handicap Your Child.

Worms drain the strength and vitality of children, making them dull and listless. Their power to resist more serious diseases is reduced and energy and interest in play is lacking. Kickapoo Worm Killer is a mildly laxative remedy in candy tablet form that children like to take. It kills and removes the worms and lets your child grow strong and healthy
