CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Collection of News Paragraphs and Advertisements.

Spanish Books in Library.

Two new books likely to prove popular at the public library are "The Pictorial Spanish Course," and "Libro Primero de Lectura." The latter is no other than the familiar Appleton's first reader of our childhood, published in a Spanish-English edition. Both books are intended for children, but will be useful to adults who are attempting to pick up a little Spanish without a teacher. They were bought at the request of a La Grande schoolboy.

If You Sell Gasoline Watch Out.

Spence Wortman, deputy state sealer of weights and measures, is in La Grande today inspecting various places of business that sell gasoline, etc. A new law goes into effect soon, under which dealers have to display cards, etc., showing the specific gravity of the gasoline, etc. Their measures also have to be inspected and sealed, etc. Mr. Wortman is ready and willing to explain the law to anyone who desires information. Those in the gasoline business would do well to get a copy of the law and read it as it is very stringent.

Personal And Society

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Wells, 607 Cosbie street, when Miss Vera Wells became the wife of Joseph F. Hendricks. The impressive ring service was used, the Rev. R. E. Gornall of the M. E. Church officiating. The bride who was attired in a becoming traveling suit with a corsage of bride roses was attended by Miss Ethel Hanley of La Grande, whose bouquet was of Cecil Brunner roses. George R. Wells, brother of the bride acted as best man. Only relatives and immediate friends were in attendance. Mrs. Hendricks is a member of one of the early pioneer families of this region while Mr. Hendricks is a prosperous young farmer of Moro in Sherman county where they will make their future home. The young couple left on No. 17 yesterday for Portland for a short wedding trip.—East Oregonian. Miss Wells was formerly of this city.

Sunday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Ferguson, Grandma Laura McClure celebrated her 80th birthday. Many old friends of the days gone by called to talk over old times and enjoy the dainty repast served. Grandma McClure was one of the first pioneers of the Grande Ronde valley coming here in 1864. She is enjoying the best of health and is very patriotic, hoping to see the "Kaiser and autocracy suppressed."

Notice to Milk Consumers.

Having disposed of the Pure Milk & Cream company to Wallace Cass of this city, we desire to thank our patrons for their liberal patronage in the past and to impress upon them and the public at large that the new proprietor is an expert milk and cream man, and that he is capable and honest. We can safely recommend our patrons to him, assuring them of every courtesy. Bills outstanding to May 16th, 1917, will be collected by us.
