COLONIAL

MIND READER MAKES HIT. The Colonial last night was packed to the sidewalks waiting to see the demonstration of the Indian Princess Wambetta. And no one was disappointed as the Princess gave a most wonderful, baffling show, telling many in the audience their troubles, and their wishes. If there is any question you want answered go to the Colonial and ask the Princess. She will tell you. Special matinee for the ladies will be given Friday. Ladies only will be admitted. Bring Princess Wambetta your troubles; she will help you solve them.

Contest Winners Are Announced

PRIZES ARE GIVEN SUCCESSFUL BIRD HOUSE BUILDERS—TWELVE PRIZES ARE AWARDED.

After much thought and consideration, the committee to judge the prizes in the Y. M. C. A. Public Schools Bird House Contest, awarded the prizes to the following boys and girls:

Artistic Series, Mechanical Division—First prize, sack of flour, La Grande Grocery Co., winner Vester Henderson. Second prize, by the Grande Ronde Meat Co., winner Myron Treat.

Boys' Division—First prize, 1 year's Y. M. C. A. membership, winner, Willard Becker. Second prize, Cattle Growers' Convention, cash, winner, Richard Lyman.

Girls' Division—First prize, kodak Silverthorn's Drug Store, winner, Malet Evans. Second prize, cash by the Cattle Growers' convention, winner, unknown.

Adaptability to Bird Life Series. Mechanical Division—First prize, 1 year's Y. M. C. A. membership, winner, Fred Hoffman. Second prize, Golden Rule Co., ball and glove, winner, Showalter Lynch.

Boys' Division—First prize, cash deposit in U. S. bank, winner, Miles Kinne. Second prize, cash, Cattle Growers' Convention, winner, Fred Steinch.

Girls' Division—First prize, sack of flour, Oregon Grocery Co., winner, Towalla Robins. Second prize, coffee, Snodgrass Grocery Co., winner, Nellie Bryant.

Honorable Mention—Abby Green, Herman Berger and Walter Bradley, prizes given by Sergeant Wallace of Company M.

All contestants not winning prizes will find their bird houses at the Y. M. C. A. and if there are any that desire to sell the bird houses a market can be found for them. The contest was a very successful one and the only regret that the committee had was that all could not win a prize, every entry in the contest showed workmanship and care and there will be scores of bird houses in this city for the birds. The judges of the contest were Messrs. Jno. Hodgins, attorney; Harold Mason, supervisor of the manual training of the schools, and Sergeant Wallace of Company M.

LEGAL NOTICE

In the circuit court of the state of Oregon for Union county. William E. Burnap and Hattie J. Burnap, plaintiffs, vs. Juanita Frakes, Merie Frakes and James H. Frakes, defendants.

To James H. Frakes the above named defendant: You are hereby notified to appear in the above entitled court and answer the complaint therein filed against you in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the first publication of this summons, and you are hereby notified that plaintiffs, for want of such answer, will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to wit a decree that plaintiffs and defendants, Juanita Frakes and Merie Frakes are the owners in fee and in possession as tenants in common of the following land in Union county, Oregon to wit: East half of northwest quarter and north half of northeast quarter of section twenty-four, township four south of range thirty-seven, east of Willamette Meridian; that of said lands, plaintiffs are the owners in fee of an undivided five-sixths and defendants, Juanita Frakes and Merie Frakes, jointly, in equal shares of an undivided one-sixth subject to an unassigned right of courtesy of defendant, James H. Frakes in said undivided one-sixth interest; that the said lands be sold for the purpose of partitioning the same and the proceeds applied first to the costs and expenses of this suit and the balance divided between the plaintiffs and defendants as their several interests are decreed in this suit.

This summons is published by order of the circuit court of the state of Oregon for Union county of date the 12th day of April, 1917, to be published in the La Grande Evening Observer once each week for six consecutive weeks and the date of the first publication of this summons is the 12th day of April, 1917.

ARCADE

"OUT OF THE WRECK" FRIDAY AND SATURDAY.

Kathlyn Williams, the brilliant Morosco-Paramount star, who recently scored such a success in the Paramount-Picture "Redeeming Love," will be seen at the Arcade on Friday and Saturday in the Morosco production of Maud E. Corsan's gripping story, "Out of the Wreck."

Miss Williams is well known to photodramatic audiences. It is entirely by her ability and conscientious effort that she has made for herself the enviable niche in the hall of fame.

The story of "Out of the Wreck" is based on a famous trial which was told the author by a prominent attorney, and carries through it unconsciously a most vivid indictment against the liquor evil.

The story of the wife unfolds and tells of how she loses her father and mother and is forced to earn her own living, and how she meets a young man with whom she falls in love, is led into a mock marriage, and how the man gradually becomes a victim of drink until finally to save her own life, she shoots him. She is acquitted at the trial and begins a new life as a mission worker. Shortly she meets her present husband.

Miss Williams is supported by an unusually excellent cast which in-
