POLAND IS BATTLEFIELD OF RUSSIA AND GERMANY

A Battlefield for Russia's and Germany's Advances and Retreats, Poland Has Suffered much—Desperate Neutrality Being Maintained—Many Promises By Both Germany and Russia Are Made.
BY LOWELL MELLETT
(Untied Press Staff Correspondent)
London, May 1.—(By Mail)—The ancient kingdom of Poland just now presents the attentive attitude of the mouse that waits to see which way the cat will jump.
It might be possible to express the situation in a more pleasant way, but the expression is that of Dr. Leon Litwinski, spokesman for the Poles in London. Poland, first caught in the mangle of the Russian advance and German retreat and then in the mangle of the German advance and Russian retreat, probably has suffered as greatly as any country of Europe, not including Belgium or Serbia. A million and a half of her sons have been enrolled as belligerents, 900,000 in the Russian armies and 600,000 in the German and Austrian armies.
But Poland's position in present Weltpolitik is that of desperate neutrality. Both Germany and Russia have promised her much. Poland wants to cash one of those promises. Of the two, Russia offers the more—a complete independence. But there is this drawback, Dr. Litwinski explained. Russia is promising independence to territory occupied by German troops.
And there is more or less of a string attached to Germany's proposal, which is a completely reunited Poland with its own local government, under the wing of the German Empire somewhat like the position of Bavaria. The string is the unrelenting emphasis on the suggestion that Poland raise an army of her own against Russia.

"A reunited Poland would be a great betterment of our before-the-war situation," said Dr. Litwinski, "but what we want, of course, is both a reunited and an independent country. We have been immensely encouraged by the proclamation of the new Russian government though previous Russian assurances, naturally, did not impress us very much."
"Do you consider that President Wilson's mention of Poland in his discussion of possible peace terms has had effect?"
"Oh, colossal!" exclaimed Dr. Litwinski.
"Colossal!" echoed Dr. George de Sweitochowski. "Colossal, Colossal!" repeated the other Poles in the room.
"It was this way," said Dr. Sweitochowski. "There's been a lot of generalizing about small nations and there's been some mention of Belgium and Serbia, but beyond that nobody has ever gone. The case of Poland has been handled very gingerly. There has been the fear, perhaps, that it might be necessary to do a lot of compromising when it came to settle Poland's case. President Wilson left no room for doubt, so far as he was concerned; he declared it should be a reunited, autonomous, independent Poland! Now we know where we've got one real friend."
"Suppose it becomes an independent Poland, will it be a republic or a monarchy?"
"That is now uncertain. Hitherto the Poles have had in mind a new Kingdom of Poland. But monarchies seem to be going out.
"If our independence comes through Russia, where the democratic ideal has taken a real hold, undoubtedly the disposition would be to make Poland a republic. If through Germany, a limited monarchy would seem most likely—unless there is a decided change in Germany in the meantime."
