Plans for Decoration Day are now in order and a complete program is being worked out by the G. A. R. and W. R. C. Commander I. W. Faulk said today: 'I want this to be the greatest day ever held in La Grande, and everyone to understand that this patriotic day is not only for the G. A. R. and W. R. C. alone, but for everybody—a time when all should decorate the graves. The memorial services for the G. A. R. and W. R. It of the city, club and other organizations to turn out and take part in the parade and program, and all citizens are requested to pay tribute to the past heroes and loved ones upon this occasion.'

Announcements

To The Merchants and Professions:

Gentlemen—At this time it appears to me right and proper that we should show our respect to the one so recently removed by death, Claud Haisten, stricken down in the performance of his duty, while in the service of his country. And in token of our respect and the patriotism of our friend I am asking that all business houses and offices be closed between the hour of two and three o'clock, during the funeral, Friday, May 25, 1917. Respectfully, FRED J. HOLMES, President Commercial Club.
