Since I Came To La Grande I Have Sold 35 MAXWELLS

THE MAXWELL IS THE WORLD'S CHAMPION IN THE USE OF GASOLINE

Here is what two Maxwell stock cars did in La Grande yesterday:

First Car-----On One Gallon of Gasoline, 32.8 Miles

Second Car-- " " " " " , 30.2 Miles

Maxwell Cars Do and Are Doing the Same Every Day in the Week.

You Will Remember the Weather Conditions Yesterday Afternoon Were Cold and Rainy and That the Cars had to Buck a Heavy Wind.
These Cars Were Not Special Factory-Built Racing Cars, But Were Borrowed From Local Owners, E. J. Conrad and Martin Highland.
This Test in La Grande Was a Part of an International Competition Among Over 2000 Maxwell Dealers and 4000 Maxwell Touring Cars, All Belonging to Owners.
Regular Stock Equipment Was Used. The Cars Went Into the Championship Dash Exactly As They Came From Their Owners' Garages. As soon as the Reports Are Summarized at Detroit the Prizewinners Will Be Announced.

LIGHT SNOWFALL AT MEACHAM

Meacham, May 24.—(Special)—The high water danger is past. It was the highest of years here. The grass is growing fine now and indications are that there will be plenty of grazing done this summer. On Tuesday there was a light snowfall again. A light buggy and team is reported to have gone over the mountains during the week, but when an auto attempted it, they found it not very favorable yet, and were compelled to turn back, but several autos got through on Sunday.

The Meacham Gun club is thinking of starting their shooting again soon, if the weather stays fair enough.

Mrs. E. E. Howe came up from Milton on Sunday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shepard.

Misses Ruby and Milbrae Schrewise went to Kamela on Monday to visit their sister, Mrs. B. Mathes.

Mrs. R. Fagan and Lorene made trips to La Grande on Wendesday and Saturday.

James Baker arrived home from Nolin on Thursday to take charge of the camp of the Slusher Sheep Co. The sheep will soon be coming up for the summer grazing.

Mrs. M. Chelf and her daughter Mrs. U. Dyer came from La Grande on Thursday.

W. Chelf made a trip to Pendleton on Friday.

J. Gervais arrived home from near Roseburg on Friday, after an effort to find the drowned body of his brother. It was not found when he left.

H. Schrekise came in from his work near Pendleton on Friday afternoon and went back on Sunday.

R. Fagan made a trip to Pendleton on Saturday.

J. D. Casey and John Chatas made a trip to La Grande on Saturday.

Mrs. A. Bodda and Miss Hazel Ferguson went to Pendleton on Saturday.

A. Thompson made a trip to Pendleton on Sunday.

Jack Dockweiler made a trip to Telocaset on Saturday night to visit.

Herb Green and Melvin Denning were in from La Grande on Sunday on business.
