Summerville News

Summerville, Ore., May 22.—(Special)—Cold wind and showers. Maybe showers will bring June flowers.

All who intend to do any planting or seeding are anxious to get it done as soon as possible on account of the late season.

The baseball boys are in full swing again. Last Sunday Dry Creek played against a nine selected from the Alico and Imbler teams, and won 4 to 6.

Prof. Starr and family drove to La Grande in their car during the week. Dr. R. McKenzie is moving right along in his sawmill enterprise.

Mrs. Ray Sion and young son and infant daughter are down from Perry visiting with relatives and friends here and on Pumpkin Ridge.

"Education" was our pastor's subject last Sunday evening. We are truly fortunate in having Rev. Mr. Archer with us. Next Sunday evening he will preach a sermon, which he says has been simmering in his mind for years. And now for the first time it will be delivered. He calls it "The Tragedies of Love, Courtship and Marriage." An invitation to attend the Epworth League convention at Alico June 3, 4 and 5 has been extended. It promises to be great. Some of the best speakers will be there to say things worth while.

Delegates from the local Odd Fellows Rebekah lodges left here on Sunday and Monday to attend the Grand lodges of the respective orders.

Miles Woodell, our R. F. D. man, and family have moved to their country home, northwest of town.

Charlie Tamerius and family have moved to town from Pumpkin Ridge. Two of our young ladies, Miss Fern McKinnis and Miss Sylvia Wood, graduated from the Imbler high school this year.

Clarence Cottrel, late from southern California, has rented the farm formerly owned by William Sion and also part of Henry Hug's.

August Behrens, one of our substantial farmers north of town, has ordered a car.

Gene Becker is owner of a new car. Motorcycles are becoming quite numerous in this part of the valley.

Memorial Day will mean more to us this year than perhaps ever before. Services at the cemetery at 2 p. m. Supper begins at 4 p. m. Oregon boasts of having more standing timber than any other state in the Union. The most important being the pine, fir, spruce, hemlock and cedar. My geography made no mention of the birch and still there are some of our youth who insist that birch is among the most important—at least in Eastern Oregon.
