ARCADE

WALLACE REID AND MYRTLE STEDMAN AT ARCADE TODAY

In presenting Wallace Reid and

Myrtle Stedman in the Lasky-Paramount production "The Prison Without Walls" it is felt that this stellar duo will be unusually popular with the amusement seeking public when it will be seen at the Arcade today and tomorrow.

The photodramatic adaptation was made by Beulah M. Dix from Robert E. MacAlarney's unusual story.

Wallace Reid is seen as a prison reform expert, and Miss Stedman as a young philanthropist. The prison expert is sent to discover who is grafting among the prison wardens. While on a tour of inspection the young philanthropist meets the prison expert and upon his release, still in search of the chief grafter, he is given a position as her secretary, only to discover that the man to whom she is engaged is suspected of being the "man higher up."

How the supposed ex-convict and the young philanthropist fall in love—and how the grafter, jealous, tries to have him done away with and how the guilty are finally brought to justice and the true conditions divulged, is brought about in a gripping and unusual manner.

Wallace Reid, whom the photodramatic patrons love to see in some kind of a conflict, has three exciting fights; one in the prison, another in a dilapidated tenement and the third happens when he is suspected of robbing the safe of the girl he loves.

In addition to Miss Stedman, Mr. Reid is supported by an excellent cast including William Conklin, Billy Elmer, Camille Ankewich and Lillian Leighton.

The production is unusually accurate as to detail. The scenes in the prison are most graphic.

Sour Stomach.

This is a mild form of indigestion. It is usually brought on by eating too rapidly or too much, or of food not suited to your digestive organs. If you will eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, eat but little meat and none at all for supper, you will more than likely avoid the sour stomach without taking any medicine whatever. When you have sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets to aid digestion.—Adv.

COLONIAL

5000 INDIANS AND TROOPS FIGHT IN BIG ESSANAY FILM.

At the Colonial Saturday, "Adventures of Buffalo Bill," Thrilling Photodrama of Life Perils of Col. William F. Cody.

"Buffalo Bill's Wild West show is coming to town!"

Millions of children throughout the United States have uttered this shout of joy during the past decade; they have set their alarm clocks and gotten up at daylight to go down to the station and meet the train; to watch, wide-eyed and with open mouths as the bands of Indians, the cowboys, buffaloes and horses detrain and moved to the circus lot where the big tents were being erected. Later they saw the big parade, and then gathered in the tent to watch the famous plainsman and his show.

"Buffalo Bill" is dead now, and his show—the tented one—will never again be seen. But "Buffalo Bill" has left us a more thrilling show than was ever witnessed before. It is Essanay's current feature, "Adventures of Buffalo Bill," which is coming to the Colonial theatre Saturday.

A year or two before Col. Cody died, the picture was filmed by Essanay. It is an historically accurate account of the famous Indian fighter's life. It shows "Buffalo Bill"—the actual man—first in the early days of his career in the wilderness; it carries him on through his battles with the Indians—showing them just as they occurred—through his great hunting trips; and gives intimate glimpses of his life up until his death.

Five thousand Indians and United States troops were used in the filming of this stupendous picture. Major General Nelson A. Miles and other great leaders of the nation's pioneer army also are shown.

The picture requires one hour and 15 minutes to be exhibited. Its thrills make one forget the time.

Cholera Morbus.

This is a very painful and dangerous disease. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from it before medicine could be obtained or a physician summoned. The right way is to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house so as to be prepared for it. Mrs. Charles Eneyart, Huntington, Ind., writes: "During the summer of 1911 two of my children were taken sick with cholera morbus. I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it gave them immediate relief."—Adv.

Picked Up By The Stroller

Villa captured Ojingo, by jingo!

The other night in a local theater, someone smelled something burning. Someone else told someone else.

Someone else told the manager, who told the chief of the fire department, who told his firemen to investigate. Which they did.

They went to the theater and sniffed.

And went downstairs in the basement.

And sniffed. And looked at Vivian Martin and sniffed.

And a lady glowered at them and said they were very rude to sniff and find fault as it was a very good "fillum".

So they went upstairs and sniffed. But they could find no trace of a fire.

And they didn't know whether to believe their noses or their eyes.

Their noses tried to describe the odor as a cross between a burning rope and a fire in a wool warehouse.

So they went down stairs again and concluded if there was a fire it had concealed itself for blamed meanness and they'd have to wait until it broke out and then they'd pinch it. Just then a man sitting in the middle of the audience put his hand in his pocket to fondle his lighted pipe, burned his hand, found he was on fire, and walked out, leaving a delicious scent of burning wool behind.

He grabbed a glass of water and put out the fire himself.

So the firemen weren't needed.

This Safely Removes Worms.

Worms are a common disease of children and every mother should know their symptoms. Sallow complexion with dark circles under eyes, irregular bowel movement with stomach hard or swollen, grinding teeth or itching may mean that Kickapoo Worm Killer is needed at once. It is a mildly laxative remedy in candy tablet form that children like. Kills and removes the worms and lets the child grow strong and healthy. At druggists, 25c.—Adv.
