Event Extraordinary

Fitting climax to Registration Day's magnificent program is announced by the La Grande Elks' band management:

Next Tuesday La Grande and surrounding territory will observe registration day with a program and patriotic celebration that should and will be a credit to the patriotism of La Grande. The day is replete with interesting things.

Hence the Elks' band will help put the finishing touches upon a patriotic day—about 8 o'clock in the evening it will render a street band concert employing a band of not only La Grande's best musicians but many from Elgin, Union, and elsewhere—in fact it will be the largest band assembled here in some time.

Just before 9 o'clock the same band will play several dance selections in Rex Hall and then comes an evening of dancing.

Formal invitation is not necessary. If you enjoy good music and like dancing, come; if you want to merely be a spectator, come.

DANCE CHARGE AS USUAL

Given under direction, and for benefit of The ELKS' BAND
