JULY 8 CONFERENCE DAY.

Russian-called Stockholm peace conference.

The formal call summarizes the purpose "to organize a world union to consider means to end the war, and eliminate imperialism."

Labor troubles are increasing. Factory employes struck because the employers refused to grant a six-hour day, and to give men and women equal wages and to grant the miners' demand for a two hundred per cent increase.

Russian socialist leaders declared the impelling motive for calling the Stockholm conference was to oust German socialists from the international party unless they subscribe to the doctrine that Kaiserism must go.

Restoration of Alsace Lorraine is not annexation but justice according to a resolution congress delegates from the front adopted. Such a program doesn't run contrary to the Russian peace platform.

the chairman of the day. Geo. T. Cochran. Hon. J. A. Burleigh delivered the patriotic address of the day which concluded the afternoon program.

Portland Stock Market

Portland, June 4.—(Special)—Cattle

Today's cattle market was the best for the past two weeks. While there was only a light supply, demand was very good and the small run was quickly absorbed mostly by small butchers. Prices are steady to 25 cents higher; best beef steers sold from $9.75 to $10.25 with a bunch of baby beef at $10.00; fair to good steers sold at $9.25 to $9.50; common to medium grade steers are still having a very slow call at steady prices; best selling from $6.50 to $8.00. Cows were in very good demand best stuff bringing $8.25 to $8.50; medium grade cows sold from $7.25 to $7.55 with ordinary grade from $6.50 to $7.00 and dairy cows bringing from $5.00 to $6.50 with one at $8.25. The bulk of the bulls were thin and sold from $6.00 to $6.50.

Hogs.

The hog market was rather erratic ranging from steady to 15 cents lower. The early market was the highest of the day with three loads bringing $15.70 to $15.75; the bulk of the lots sales were from $15.25 to $15.40 with a few at $15.50. Pigs brought $13.00 with one bunch going from $13.50 to $14.50, while the demand was a big feature in holding up the market many killers still claim bearish tactics.

Sheep.

Sheep market continues strong with an advance in prices in some cases of 25 cents. Valley spring lambs selling readily at $13.50 to $13.75 with shorn yearlings at $10.50 to $11.25; shorn heavy ewes bringing in from $9.00 to $10.00; there was a bunch of fair short wool yearlings which sold at $12.75. Demand is very good and the general market has a firm undertone.

Prize For Enlistment.

Washington, June 5.—(United Press)—As an inducement to young men to live up to the Marine Corps' slogan "First to Fight" a prize will be awarded to the first man each day accepted for enlistment as a sea-soldier during National Marine Corps Recruiting Week, June 10 to 16, in many cities throughout the country, according to an announcement made at Marine Corps Headquarters today. Marine Corps Week, with its slogan "Four Thousand Enlistments by Saturday Night," will be the Marine Corps' record recruiting achievement, and Major General George Barnett, commandant, urges every American to "do his bit" in some way during that week. "If you want to test your courage and get real fighting with real fighters," says General Barnett, "enlist in the Marines."

ing cities of the East, through the wide stretches of the Middle West to the Pacific, from every city, hamlet and remote cross-road, the millions are streaming to the polls to place their names on the "lists of honor." Every home—the milling tenement to the lonely farmhouse—is offering its sacrifice. The whole nation is stepping forward to volunteer. It is a stern holiday of sacrifice—one of the most momentous days in the history of the country. At the hour of seven o'clock the polls opened at the regular voting places throughout the country. Men began streaming to the polls to procure their registration certificates—the badge of their offer of service. In some states the day assumed the air of a festival. The cities were in gala attire with flags flying and the streets filled with townspeople stirred by the spirit of the day. Patriotic speeches and parades featured the celebration in Middle Western states. In many towns whole families went to the polls with their loved ones—mothers bravely led their first born to offer them for the cause of democracy. Only estimates can be made of the number of men that are registering today. Officials of the census bureau placed the number at over ten million—one of every ten souls in the nation. Until the totals are in—and it will take days to compile them—the officials cannot tell. Every man between the ages of twenty-one and thirty is to present himself at his polling place before 9 o'clock tonight. From hundreds of cities the registration cards of the absentees and wanderers were pouring into the county clerks today. In this nerve center of the nation the men who constructed and set into motion the gigantic machinery of the registration sat back to watch it do its work. With few hitches the task went on with the precision of a machine.

LONDON NEWSPAPERS INTERESTED IN MITCHELL

London, June 5.—London newspapers took particular interest in the meeting Balfour and Mayor Mitchell. They recalled the mayor's grandfather, John Mitchell, was an Irish rebel who was convicted in 1848 and sent to the Australian prison colony. He escaped to the United States in 1853 and returned to Ireland in 1874. He was then so broken in health that he was not reentered. Tipperary elected him to Parliament but was declared ineligible. Whereupon Tipperary reelected him, but he soon afterward died. One of the London newspapers remarked charitably, in recalling these facts that "Mitchell, the rebel, came of decent people, for his father was the Rev. John Mitchell, 'of County Down.'"
