WAR IS AGAINST FRENCH GENERALLY SAYS GERMAN

BY WILBUR S. FORREST.
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Paris, June 7.—"We are not making war solely against the French army and French territory but against Frenchmen generally, your women, children and everything that belongs to the French blood and race." This is what the German commanding officer in Noyon told Senator Noel, mayor of Noyon, before the Germans sacked the town. Shortly before the destruction began, the commander summoned Noel and demanded that he name specific instances of senseless atrocities and vandalism committed by the kaiser's troops. Noel put in 15 minutes—the time allowed—naming instance after instance with full details. The crimes charged included rape, burglary, assault, arson and murder. After having listened, the commander excused such conduct by saying his countrymen were warring against "French blood and race." One of the instances cited was the case of little Andre Labot, a child who was beaten with a cane for failing to salute an officer, then forced to salute a dummy draped with a German uniform until he fell exhausted, and was finally bayoneted and killed.

Must Show Cards.

The young man who has failed to register had better keep away from recruiting stations. According to instructions received at the recruiting station, no applicant will be accepted who has not registered. And should any apply for enlistment without his green card, he will be reported to the federal authorities or to the police. Before the draft is made, any registered man can join either the army or navy. The man who has not registered, and who is between the ages of 21 and 31, will be in about as bad a fix as the man without a country.

There is really no comparison the for there is not much vegetation here, and it makes the mountains seem much higher and further than they really are.

"There is plenty of sage brush and quite a few flowers. We are situated in a creek bottom about 200 yards wide which is just as fertile and as thickly populated with plant growth as any place in the Willamette valley. As far as animals are concerned they are about the same as at the other outposts. I haven't heard any coyotes yet but some of the fellows have.

Economy Should Be Practiced

In buying all merchandise—the same as it is in any other transaction—and even more so, because the greater portion of your living expenses moves through merchandise channels. It is not what you earn so much that counts, but what you save that strengthens your independence. Trade where your dollar will produce 100 per cent value. Compare our values and prices and if you truly want to save money you will trade at a J. C. Penney Store.
